Safe Love Other Political Acts:

Not Quite Hope and Other Political Emotions in the Gilded Age Nathan Wolff, 2019 Not Quite Hope and Other Political Emotions in the Gilded Age argues that late nineteenth century US fiction grapples with and helps to conceptualize the disagreeable feelings that are both a threat to citizens agency and an inescapable part of the emotional life of democracy then as now In detailing the corruption and venality for which the period remains known authors including Mark Twain Harriet Beecher Stowe Henry Adams and Helen Hunt Jackson evoked the depressing inefficacy of reform the lunatic passions of the mob and the revolting appetites of lobbyists and office seekers Readers and critics of these Washington novels historical romances and satiric romances have denounced these books for their negative tone seeing it as a sign of cynicism and elitism Not Quite Hope argues in contrast that their distrust of politics is coupled with an intense investment in it not quite apathy but not quite hope Chapters examine both common and idiosyncratic forms of political emotion including crazy love disgust cynicism election fatigue and the myriad feelings of hatred and suspicion provoked by the figure of the hypocrite In so doing the book corrects critics too narrow focus on sympathy as the American novel's model political emotion We think of reform novels as fostering feeling for fellow citizens or for specific causes This volume argues that Gilded Age fiction refocuses attention on the unstable emotions that continue to shape our relation to politics as such International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes Policy and Politics for Nurses and Other Health Professionals: Advocacy and Action Donna M. Nickitas, Donna J. Middaugh, Veronica Feeg, 2018-08-22 Policy and Politics for Nurses and Other Health Professionals Third Edition focuses on the idea that all healthcare providers require a fundamental understanding of the healthcare system including but not limited to knowledge required to practice their discipline Augustine and Politics as Longing in the World John von Heyking, 2001 Saint Augustine's political thought has usually been interpreted by modern readers as suggesting that politics is based on sin In Augustine and Politics as Longing in the World John von Heyking shows that Augustine actually considered political life a substantive good that fulfills a human longing for a kind of wholeness Rather than showing Augustine as supporting the Christian church's domination of politics von Heyking argues that he held a subtler view of the relationship between religion and politics one that preserves

the independence of political life And while many see his politics as based on a natural law ethic or on one in which authority is conferred by direct revelation von Heyking shows how Augustine held to an understanding of political ethics that emphasizes practical wisdom and judgment in a mode that resembles Aristotle rather than Machiavelli Acts of Knowing Stephen Cowden, Gurnam Singh, 2013-03-28 This provocative book's starting point is a deep and profound concern about the commodification of knowledge within the contemporary university Acts of Knowing aims to provide readers with a means of understanding the issues from the perspective of Critical Pedagogy an educational philosophy which believes that knowing must be freed from the constraints of the financial and managerialist logics which dominate the contemporary university Critical Pedagogy is important for three key reasons it conceptualises pedagogy as a process of engagement between the teacher and taught secondly that that engagement is based on an underlying humanistic view about human worth and value and thirdly that the knowing which can come out of this engagement needs to be understood essentially as exchange between people rather than a financial exchange Cowden and Singh argue that the conception of education as simply a means for securing economic returns for the individual and for the society's positioning in a global marketplace represents a fundamentally impoverished conception of education which impoverishes not just individuals but society as a whole

Mobilising the Racialised 'Others' Suvi Keskinen, 2022-05-16 This book provides an original approach to the connections of race racism and neoliberalisation through a focus on postethnic activism in which mobilisation is based on racialisation as non white or other instead of ethnic group membership Developing the theoretical understanding of political activism under the neoliberal turn in racial capitalism and the increasingly hostile political environment towards migrants and racialised minorities the book investigates the conditions forms and visions of postethnic activism in three Nordic countries Denmark Sweden and Finland It connects the historical legacies of European colonialism to the current configurations of racial politics and global capitalism The book compellingly argues that contrary to the tendencies of neoliberal postracialism to de politicise social inequalities the activists are re politicising questions of race class and gender in new ways The book is of interest to scholars and students in sociology ethnic and racial studies cultural studies feminist studies and urban studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Indigenous Motherhood in the Academy Robin Zape-tah-hol-ah Minthorn, Christine A. Nelson, Heather J. Shotton, 2022-08-19 Indigenous Motherhood in the Academy highlights the experiences and narratives emerging from Indigenous mothers in the academy who are negotiating their roles in multiple contexts The essays in this volume contribute to the broader higher education literature and the literature on Indigenous representation in the academy filling a longtime gap that has excluded Indigenous women scholar voices This book covers diverse topics such as the journey to motherhood lessons through motherhood acknowledging ancestors and grandparents in one's mothering how historical trauma and violence plague the past and balancing mothering through the healing process More specific to Indigenous motherhood in the academy is how culture and place impacts mothering specifically if Indigenous mothers are not in their traditional homelands as they raise their children how academia impacts mothering how mothering impacts scholarship and how to negotiate loss and other complexities between motherhood and one's role in the academy

Speaking Truths Valerie Chepp, 2022-02-11 The twenty first century is already riddled with protests demanding social justice and in every instance young people are leading the charge But in addition to protesters who take to the streets with handmade placards are young adults who engage in less obvious change making tactics In Speaking Truths sociologist Valerie Chepp goes behind the scenes to uncover how spoken word poetry and young people's participation in it contributes to a broader understanding of contemporary social justice activism including this generation's attention to the political importance of identity well being and love Drawing upon detailed observations and in depth interviews Chepp tells the story of a diverse group of young adults from Washington D C who use spoken word to create a more just and equitable world Outlining the contours of this approach she interrogates spoken word activism's emphasis on personal storytelling and truth the strategic uses of aesthetics and emotions to politically engage across difference and the significance of healing in sustainable movements for change Weaving together their poetry and personally told stories Chepp shows how poets tap into the beautiful emotional personal and therapeutic features of spoken word to empathically connect with others advance intersectional and systemic analyses of inequality and make social justice messages relatable across a diverse public By creating allies and forging connections based on friendship professional commitments lived experiences emotions artistic kinship and political views this activist approach is highly integrated into the everyday lives of its practitioners online and face to face Chepp argues that spoken word activism is a product of and a call to action against the neoliberal era in which poets have come of age characterized by widening structural inequalities and increasing economic and social vulnerability She illustrates how this deeply personal and intimate activist approach borrows from builds upon and diverges from previous social movement paradigms Spotlighting the complexity and mutual influence of modern day activism and the world in which it unfolds Speaking Truths contributes to our understanding of contemporary social change making and how neoliberalism has shaped this political generation's experiences with social injustice

Navigating Women's Friendships in American Literature and Culture Kristi Branham, Kelly L. Reames, 2022-11-10 This volume presents a collection of critical essays that center women's friendship in women's literary and artistic production Analyzing cultural portrayals of women's friendships in fiction letters and film these essays collectively suggest new models of literary interpretation that do not prioritize heterosexual romance Instead this book represents friendships as mature and meaningful relationships that contribute to identity formation and political coalition Both the supportive and competitive aspects of friendships are shown to be crucial to women's identities as individuals political citizens and artists Addressing the complexities of how 20th and 21st century cultural texts construe women's friendships as they navigate patriarchal institutions this collection advances scholarship on friendship beyond men and masculine models

Wisdom's Call K A Ellis, 2023-09-05 Like all great building projects the world runs on the wisdom of its Architect The universe is a carefully ordered place designed for humanity's good and God's glory Too often however we attempt life based on our own understanding To become wise we must respond to Wisdom's call to dwell in Wisdom's house Scripture teaches that Christ Himself is our wisdom our way back to understanding how to build and live as the Architect intended Those who meditate on the wisdom of Christ will find themselves living in Wisdom's house once again You will be refreshed and able to bring life to those around you just like Christ who breathed life from its start K A Ellis shows us how to claim the asset of wisdom and invites us to experience Jesus Christ the Wisdom on which our world rests Ellis calls us to live as people who are wise

Public Passion Rebecca Kingston, 2011-09-13 Taking a broad historical perspective Public Passion traces the role of emotion in political thought from its prominence in classical sources through its resuscitation by Montesquieu to the present moment Combining intellectual history philosophy and political theory Rebecca Kingston develops a sophisticated account of collective emotion that demonstrates how popular sentiment is compatible with debate pluralism and individual agency and shows how emotion shapes the tone of interactions among citizens She also analyzes the ways in which emotions are shared and transmitted among citizens of a particular regime paying particular attention to the connection between political institutions and the psychological dispositions that they foster Public Passion presents illuminating new ways to appreciate the forms of popular will and reveals that emotional understanding by citizens may in fact be the very basis through which a commitment to principles of justice can be sustained
