Women's Writing in Canada Patricia Demers, Canadian Literature K. Balachandran, 2007

Sharon Pollock Sharon Pollock, 2005 Set in Vancouver circa 1914 End Dream follows the death of a young Scottish nanny employed by a member of the political and social elite of the era a death which raises questions of murder and suicide Moving Pictures is a theatrical tracing of the life of Nell Shipman who as an actress sang danced and hammed her way across North America in the early 1900s Angel's Trumpet is a play about Scott and Zelda Fitzgerald

Modern Anglophone Drama by Women Alan P. Barr, 2007 Alan P Barr has brought together eleven world class modern plays by women that show not only their artistry but also their variety and their passion Drawn from nine different countries other than the United States and England that use English as their literary language the plays reflect the concerns of women across the globe The imagery and dramatic conventions may shift and the tones vary but the need to be strong and its difficulty the sense of a world that is anything but nurturing or ideal and the suspect nature of family life and relations are constant themes The struggle over language in countries that are very often ex colonies conveys the frequent overlap between feminist and postcolonial focuses The diversity of Englishes on stages from Singapore to South Africa is a lovely curtain call to this theater festival

Readings of the Particular Anne Holden Rønning, Lene Johannessen, 2007 The present collection aims at throwing light on transculturality and the identities and masks that people put on in writing as much as in life in an age of global levelling and the struggle for a particular place in a postcolonial world Topics covered include North African identity in France cultural citizenship and the Asian diaspora novels of beur self identity by Maghrebi immigrants in France Scottish fiction Britain and Empire memory amnesia and the re-invention of the past in South Africa the Caribbean and elsewhere borders necrophilia and history in Southern African fiction encodings of female control spectating in black documentary cinema theatre performance and the Western presence in Africa masks history transtextuality and other aspects of Irish poetry and drama the masking and unmasking of identity in the African American novel violence and Titus Andronicus in black Nova Scotian poetry notions of the national and of indigeneity in contemporary Canadian drama Native Canadians space and the city Authors and artists treated include William Boyd Andr Brink George Elliott Clarke David Dabydeen Ralph

Ellison Bessie Head Seamus Heaney Tomson Highway Isaac Julien Daniel David Moses Paul Muldoon Albert Murray Jean Rhys Sir Walter Scott Robert Louis Stevenson Richard Wright and W B Yeats Dramatic Revisions of Myths, Fairy Tales and Legends Verna A. Foster, 2012-10-10 These new essays explore the ways in which contemporary dramatists have retold or otherwise made use of myths fairy tales and legends from a variety of cultures including Greek West African North American Japanese and various parts of Europe The dramatists discussed range from well established playwrights such as Tony Kushner Caryl Churchill and Timberlake Wertenbaker to new theatrical stars such as Sarah Ruhl and Tarell Alvin McCraney The book contributes to the current discussion of adaptation theory by examining the different ways and for what purposes plays revise mythic stories and characters The essays contribute to studies of literary uses of myth by focusing on how recent dramatists have used myths fairy tales and legends to address contemporary concerns especially changing representations of women and the politics of gender relations but also topics such as damage to the environment and political violence Indigenous North American Drama Birgit Däwes, 2013-01-01 Traces the historical dimensions of Native North American drama using a critical perspective Global Realignments and the Canadian Nation in the Third Millennium Karin Ika, 2010 With aggravating global realignments the dynamics and contradictions of a world risk society are looming ahead in the unfolding Third Millennium while globalization is gaining further steam To this bears witness a potpourri of often frightening geopolitical social cultural economic demographic ecological and other changes and challenges that gives substantial cause for concern about getting lost in a trans whatever sea of turmoil uncertainty and indeterminateness The resultant current backlash or rather renewed interest in the nation as a collective identity establishing category is an effort to gain some anchorage in ever more disintegrating times and proves especially those theoreticians wrong for whom the whole concept of the nation has worn off since long In 16 resourceful essays internationally distinguished Canadian and European experts from a variety of fields take a fresh look at these developments by focussing on one of the most fascinating multicultural and multifaceted nation state s in the world Canada in the Third Millennium The topics they discuss include among others Canada s difficult dissociation from Europe and the USA the reframing and reclaiming of the Canadian story the role of nations within the nation the efforts to transcend the nation pending geopolitical and geo ecological crises glocal issues and new wars Collectively the entries prove that Canada is a very progressive nation and opens up new perspectives for other collectives currently reassessing their national identities in a global environment Thus the book reaches well beyond the study of Canada and will be valuable to academics professionals teachers and students of various disciplines coping with the issue at stake as well as the general reader The Violent Woman as a New Theatrical Character Type Shelley Scott, 2007 This book analyzes plays by Canadian women that deal with real life incidents of violent women In each of the plays under consideration the playwright is theatrically engaged with the social meaning of the woman s violent act asking how it was interpreted in public discourse and investigating the implications of that interpretation The female playwrights in this study have each made individual choices about the form in which they will tackle their tricky subject matter and their choices make for varied and intriguing relationships with their audiences Each play is also placed in the context of its social milieu by means of an examination of some of the inter textual discourse surrounding its appearance In every case the fundamental question remains what and how does the violent woman mean

The Routledge Concise History of Canadian Literature Richard J. Lane, 2012-04-27 The Routledge Concise History of Canadian Literature introduces the fiction poetry and drama of Canada in its historical political and cultural contexts In this clear and structured volume Richard Lane outlines the history of Canadian literature from colonial times to the present key texts for Canadian First Peoples and the literature of Quebec the impact of English translation and the Canadian immigrant experience critical themes such as landscape ethnicity orality textuality war and nationhood contemporary debate on the canon feminism postcoloniality queer theory and cultural and ethnic diversity the work of canonical and lesser known writers from Catherine Parr Traill and Susanna Moodie to Robert Service Maria Campbell and Douglas Coupland Written in an engaging and accessible style and offering a glossary maps and further reading sections this guidebook is a crucial resource for students working in the field of Canadian Literature

Wild Words Donna Coates, George Melnyk, 2009 As the first collection of literary criticism focusing on Alberta writers Wild Words establishes a basis for identifying Alberta fiction poetry drama and nonfiction as valid subjects of study in their own right The idea for this collection began with 100 years of literary tradition for Alberta s centenary However Alberta s literary roots go back much farther than that to the oration of First Nation s peoples and the colonizing exploration and travel literature of the 18th and 19th centuries
