Darkness 1899 is a novella by Polish British novelist Joseph Conrad about a voyage up the Congo River into the Congo Free

State in the heart of Africa by the story s narrator Marlow Marlow tells his story to friends aboard a boat anchored on the River Thames London England This setting provides the frame for Marlow s story of his obsession with the ivory trader Kurtz which enables Conrad to create a parallel between London and Africa as places of darkness Lord Jim is a novel by Joseph Conrad originally published as a serial in Blackwood s Magazine from October 1899 to November 1900 An early and primary event is the abandonment of a ship in distress by its crew including the young British seaman Jim He is publicly censured for this action and the novel follows his later attempts at coming to terms with himself and his past      Lord Jim, a Tale Joseph

Joseph Conrad,1900 The story of a would be hero who deserts what he thinks is a sinking ship and thereafter is haunted by shame and the need to explain himself      Lord Jim Joseph Conrad,2020-08-21 Lord Jim is a novel by Joseph Conrad originally published as a serial in Blackwood s Magazine from October 1899 to November 1900 An early and primary event in the story is the abandonment of a passenger ship in distress by its crew including a young British seaman named Jim He is publicly censured for this action and the novel follows his later attempts at coming to terms with himself and his past In 1998 the Modern Library ranked Lord Jim 85th on its list of the 100 best English language novels of the 20th century Recovered from an injury Jim seeks a position on the Patna a steamer serving the transport of 800 pilgrims of an exacting belief to a port on the Red Sea He is hired as first mate After some days of smooth sailing the ship hits something in the night and begins taking on water The captain thinks the ship will sink and Jim agrees but wants to put the passengers on the few boats before that can happen The captain and two other crewmen think only to save themselves and prepare to lower a boat The helmsmen remain as no order has been given to do otherwise In a crucial moment Jim jumps into the boat with the captain A few days later they are picked up by an outbound steamer When they reach port they learn that the Patna and its passengers were brought in safely by a crew from a French navy ship The captain's actions in abandoning both ship and passengers are against the code of the sea and the crew is publicly vilified When the other men leave town before the magistrate's court can be convened Jim is the only crew member left to testify All lose their certificates to sail Brierly a captain of perfect reputation who is on the panel of the court commits suicide days after the trial      Lord Jim Illustrated Joseph Conrad,2020-10-13

Lord Jim is a novel by Joseph Conrad originally published as a serial in Blackwood's Magazine from October 1899 to November 1900 An early and primary event in the story is the abandonment of a passenger ship in distress by its crew including a young British seaman named Jim He is publicly censured for this action and the novel follows his later attempts at coming to terms with himself and his past      Lord Jim (Amazonclassics Edition) Joseph Conrad,2018-03-27

When Jim a young merchant seaman joins a ship carrying Muslims to Mecca he's flush with heroic daydreams But after only a few days aboard the Patna hits something in the night and begins to take on water In a crucial moment that tests his courage Jim cowers and abandons ship rather than risk his life to save the pilgrims Tried for shameful dereliction of duty the guilt-ridden Englishman sets forth to make amends for his past in the remote territory of Patusan As the curious Captain Marlow now attempts to understand Jim's history through various fractured narratives Jim becomes defined by the memories of others some true some invented and all inescapable Upending the expectations of nautical fiction Joseph Conrad created a profound exploration of one's perception of self of time as both healing and destructive and of trying to know the unknowable
