Finding Our Voice Matthew D. Kim, Daniel L. Wong, 2020-06-17 No one preaches in a cultural vacuum The message of what God has done in Christ is good news to all but to have the greatest impact on its hearers or even to be understood at all it must be culturally contextualized Finding Our Voice speaks clearly to an issue that has largely been ignored preaching to Asian North American ANA contexts In addition to reworking hermeneutics theology and homiletics for these overlooked contexts Kim and Wong include examples of culturally specific sermons and instructive questions for contextualizing one's own sermons Finding Our Voice is essential reading for all who preach and teach in ANA contexts But by examining this kind of contextualization in action all who preach in their own unique contexts will benefit from this approach framework steeped in humility that is not only insightful but is readily actionable I m grateful for the vulnerability and wisdom offered by each of the twelve leaders who contributed to this book The task of learning to love well neighbors and enemies alike is long and urgent and it can be costly And yet as this book shows us because it is the work of Jesus we can pursue this love with great hope Gary A Haugen founder and CEO International Justice Mission     Invitation to Lead Paul Tokunaga,2003-02-10 Writing from his own rich experiences both successes and failures Paul Tokunaga addresses the needs difficulties gifts and abilities that Asian Americans struggle with in leadership     Finding Grace Loretta Rothschild,2025-07-08 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A July Indie Next Pick A strikingly original and deeply moving debut People Begins with such a gasp inducing twist that it s almost impossible to describe Real Simple The literary book of the summer Sarah Gelman CBS Mornings SHE THOUGHT IT WAS FATE I KNEW IT WASN T Honor seems to have everything she adores her bright and beautiful daughter Chloe and her charming handsome husband Tom even if he works one hundred hours a week Yet Honor s longing for another baby threatens to eclipse all of it until a shocking event changes their lives forever Years later Tom makes a decision that ripples through their families lives in ways he could never have foreseen As the consequences of that fateful choice unfold two women s paths become irrevocably intertwined But when old love clashes with new who will be left standing And what happens when your secrets come back to haunt you Blending a page turning moral dilemma with satisfying emotional poignancy Finding Grace is a sweeping love story that explores the price of a new beginning how the ghosts of our past shape our future and whether redemption can be found in the wreckage of what we ve lost     A Heart for the Community John Fuder,Noel Castellanos,2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable vibrant models of ministry that make a difference     Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans Matthew D. facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermonic preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology
