Technological, Managerial and Organizational Core Competencies: Dynamic Innovation and Sustainable Development Nobre, Farley Simon, 2011-09-30 Innovation involves a set of processes which support the production and transformation of knowledge into new processes technologies and products goods and services and provide an organization with particular strengths and value relative to other firms In such a view innovation is a key source of customer benefits and sustainable competitive advantage

Technological Managerial and Organizational Core Competencies Dynamic Innovation and Sustainable Development investigates the impact of knowledge management information systems finance organizational networks internationalization strategic management marketing entrepreneurship and sustainability on an organization that pursues dynamic innovation and sustainable advantage This book provides research and practice for graduate and undergraduate programs as well as business firms with different technological managerial and organizational perspectives

Further Description from the Editors This book represents the culmination of an international project to compile inter disciplinary research that most contributes to innovation More specifically this book is about innovation in firms industries nations and society It speaks to professionals and researchers who want to improve their understanding of dynamic innovation and sustainable development The Editors goal is to foster cross pollination among researchers To this aim the Editors have selected and assembled 35 chapters that illustrate multidisciplinary theoretical perspectives and empiric results on innovation and the roles of Sustainability Organizational Networks Entrepreneurship Knowledge Management R D T Research Development and Technology Management Marketing Finance Internationalization and Information Systems in the organization that pursues dynamic innovation and sustainable development Innovation involves processes organizational elements or resources and Organizational Abilities OA that support the production and transformation of knowledge into new knowledge processes structures technologies and products goods and services At the firm and industry levels of analysis innovation can provide organizations with strengths relative to other firms clusters and nations and it is a key source of customer benefits and sustainable development At the collective and societal levels of analysis innovation can provide humanity with economic social and environmental wealth through sustainable development The uniqueness of this book lies in the participants efforts to identify Organizations Creative Areas OCA that can provide core competencies for the organization in pursuit of dynamic innovation and sustainable development In this perspective innovation is a dynamic system and it is contingent upon a set of core competencies that couple to each other Therefore changing of even one competence can affect the organization's ability to innovate. The book avoids the term competitive advantage and adopts a more fruitful perspective of sustainable development: the process of achieving human development in an inclusive, connected, equitable, prudent, and secure manner. An inclusive perspective sees traditional competitive advantage as occupying one extreme, whereas truly sustainable development occupies the opposite extreme. Sustainable development must benefit not only the organization and its customers but also the whole society and the future of humanity through sustainability. Most chapters of this book fall between these extremes.

Research Administration and Management

Elliott C. Kulakowski, Lynne U. Chronister, 2006-01-16. This reference text addresses the basic knowledge of research administration and management and includes everything from a review of research administration and the infrastructure that is necessary to support research to project development and post-project plans. Examples of concepts, case studies, a glossary of terms and acronyms, and references to books, journal articles, monographs, and federal regulations are also included.

Managing Global Innovation Roman Boutellier, Oliver Gassmann, Maximilian von Zedtwitz, 2013-03-09. Countries splinter, regional trading blocks grow, the global economy becomes even more interconnected. Lester Thurow, The Future of Capitalism, 1996. Globalization has changed the face of R&D. Most R&D organizations are what they are just because of historical reasons. Only now some global R&D patterns are emerging. Customer-focused R&D, virtual teams, and dispersed R&D departments have been shaped deliberately by some large companies with impressive success.

Managing Technology and Innovation

Robert Verburg, J. Roland Ortt, Willemijn M. Dicke, 2006-06-19. Modern technology and innovation are vital to the success of all companies, be they hi-tech firms or companies seemingly unaffected by technology and innovation, whether established firms or business start-ups. This book focuses on understanding technology as a corporate resource, covering product development, design of systems, and the managerial aspects of new and high technology. Topics investigated include the internal organization of high technology firms, the management of technology in society, managing innovation dilemmas, and strategies. The wide-ranging experience of the teachers and experts contributing to this book has resulted in an integrated, multi-disciplinary textbook that provides an introductory overview to managing technology and innovation in the twenty-first century. This text is essential reading for students of business and engineering concerned with technology and innovation management.

Restoring the Innovative Edge Jerald Hage, 2011-05-17. This book provides a framework for restoring America's innovative edge by driving the evolution of science and technology and ameliorating obstacles and blockages that cause failures in this process. The book's perspective is informed not only by the author's decades of research on innovation but also his recent consulting with national public research laboratories and agencies.
