T. Roberts, 2015-11-10 B T Roberts saw the exclusion of women from ordination as analogous to racism His ability to see the new community made possible by Christ offers Christians today a prophetic vision of the difference Christ makes Roberts s 1891 Ordaining Women takes seriously the scriptural promise that Christ has unmasked the false distinctions and repaired the damaged social arrangements of this world Like the abolition of slavery the ordination of women becomes yet another obvious sign of the world made new in Christ With careful attention to biblical interpretation church tradition and empirical evidence Roberts exposes the biases that have long held captive the Christian imagination In this new edition Benjamin Wayman offers an updated and fully annotated version of Roberts s original work and demonstrates the breadth and depth of his analysis Roberts s vision of the gospel challenges the traditional and still dominant view of the global church and invites Christians to reimagine the inclusion of women in ordained ministry If Christians had for so long been wrong about race might we today be wrong about gender
