Meetings Manners And Civilization:

Meetings, Manners, and Civilization Wilbert van Vree, 1999 Sociologist Vree peers into the primordial obscurity before Robert's Rules and traces the evolution of behavior during councils assemblies parliaments and conferences to the present within the framework of Norbert Elias theory of civilizing processes Rather than a comparative history he presents a succession of case studies such as the militarization and demilitarization of meetings in agrarian societies the emergence of a Protestant meeting order and the professionalization of meeting manners The Civilized Organization Ad van Iterson, 2002-01-01 Topics covered in this title include organizing discourse negotiating boundaries crossing cultures and theorizing practice Civilisation and Informalisation Cas Wouters, Michael Dunning, 2019-01-31 Over the last century and a half manners and formalities in the West have become less status ridden stiff and rigid Debates around Norbert Elias theory of civilising processes gave rise to questions of a change in direction of these patterns The concept of informalisation which describes these transformations was first used to analyse the tumultuous changes of the 1960s and 1970s This increasing informality leniency and flexibility comes hand in hand with a growing demand on individuals to self regulate their emotions This book will stimulate debate around the changes in the standards of manners and emotion regulation and will generate new avenues of enquiry that focus on issues involving informalisation The chapters shed light on a variety of such moral and political issues over the last 150 years offering a new and broader scope on the present social condition of humanity Civilisation and Informalisation will be an important addition for students and scholars of figurational process sociology and of broader interest to academics across sociology social psychology and social history Proceedings of the ... Annual Meeting American Society of International Law, 1910 The Cambridge Handbook of Meeting Science Joseph A. Allen, Nale Lehmann-Willenbrock, Steven G. Rogelberg, 2015-07-15 This first volume to analyze the science of meetings offers a unique perspective on an integral part of contemporary work life More than just a tool for improving individual and organizational effectiveness and well being meetings provide a window into the very essence of organizations and employees experiences with the organization The average employee attends at least three meetings per week and managers spend the majority of their time in meetings Meetings can raise individuals teams and organizations to tremendous levels of achievement However they can also undermine effectiveness and well being The Cambridge Handbook of Meeting Science assembles leading authors in industrial and organizational psychology management marketing organizational behavior anthropology sociology and communication to explore the meeting itself including pre meeting activities and post meeting activities It provides a comprehensive overview of research in the field and will serve as an invaluable starting point for scholars who seek to understand and improve meetings The Discourse of Business Meetings Fatma M. AlHaidari, 2017-11-22 This book examines the social organizational discourse of task oriented business meetings in a Kuwaiti financial organization and an American non profit trade organisation Focusing primarily on the linguistic behaviours demonstrating agency and power of managers and staff members displayed during these meetings the project is based on ethnographic data collected during eight months of fieldwork The author examines the similarities and differences between the linguistic behaviours of both organizations particularly relating to the production of collective we us and our utterances and directive speech acts issued to explore how managers and co workers perform agency and power in meetings This distinctive book will shed light into the influence of language on the actions and relationships of managers and co workers in business meetings and will be of interest to applied linguists and discourse analysts in the field of business discourse in addition to business professionals in management and finance Enacting the Roles of Boss and Employee in German Business Meetings Tobias Barske, 2016-08-17 This book investigates how participants in German business meetings collaborate to talk this speech exchange system into existence Using the methodology of conversation analysis the study describes how participants in meetings perform different social roles specifically focusing on ways in which the enactment of doing being boss and doing being employee depends upon a moment by moment collaboration between all participants In its description of how participants enact these social roles through talk in interaction the book also incorporates systematically embodied actions into the analysis of business meetings Chapter Two situates this project within existing studies on business meetings and introduces the research methodology of conversation analysis while Chapter 3 examines all uses of the particle ok in German business meetings arguing that certain uses of ok relate to enacting the social role of doing being boss Chapter 4 then investigates the practice of how employees produce extended reports about ongoing projects In discussing the social role of doing being employee it compares the practice of story telling in ordinary conversation to that of producing reports during German business meetings Moreover Chapter 5 problematizes the notion of pre assigned social roles Using the concept of zones of interactional transition it discusses instances where employees question the role of the meeting facilitator chairperson and boss In analyzing the interactional fallout in these examples it offers additional evidence that social roles such as boss represent a social construct which depends on a constant co construction of this role Finally the conclusion situates the study s findings within the field of institutional talk Why Meetings Matter Patrik Hall, Malin Åkerström, Erika A. Cederholm, 2024-01-18 This innovative book argues that meetings are a crucial feature of modern organisations demonstrating that contrary to popular belief meetings are what define represent and maintain organisations The Idea of Civilization and the Making of the Global Order Andrew Linklater, 2020-11-18 The idea of civilization recurs frequently in reflections on international politics However International Relations academic writings on civilization have failed to acknowledge the major 20th century analysis that examined the processes through which Europeans came to regard themselves as uniquely civilized Norbert Elias s On the Process of Civilization This book provides a comprehensive exploration of the significance of Elias s reflections on civilization for International Relations It explains the working principles of an Eliasian or process sociological approach to civilization and the global order and demonstrates how the interdependencies between state formation colonialism and an emergent international society shaped the European civilizing process

Meeting Ethnography Jen Sandler, Renita Thedvall, 2017-03-27 This volume asks and addresses elusive ontological epistemological and methodological questions about meetings What are meetings What sort of knowledge identities and power relationships are produced performed communicated and legitimized through meetings How do and how might ethnographers study meetings as objects and how might they best conduct research in meetings as particular elements of their field sites Through contributions from an international group of ethnographers who have conducted meeting ethnography in diverse field sites this volume offers both theoretical insight and methodological guidance into the study of this most ubiquitous ritual

'We are a farming class' Peter Woodley, 2025-04-03 Notions of an arcadian farming life permeate settler Australian understandings of themselves and their nation Qualities of hard work perseverance resourcefulness and a steady devotion to family and community the historian John Hirst's Pioneer Legend are idealised in this nation But the people from whom the legend is derived have rarely been studied in depth They are more the stuff of myth and fond imagining than of concerted examination To what extent is the legend built on lived experience How have farming people thought of themselves and their contribution to a wider national mythos We are a farming class examines the lives of people in the farmlands surrounding Dubbo in the New South Wales central west between the 1870s and the 1950s from free selection and the establishment of agriculture to the dawning of postwar prosperity and change What emerges is a closely documented ethnographically rich portrait of a way of life and culture at once distinctive and surprising recognisable and unknown Unrespectable Radicals? Paul A. Pickering, 2016-02-24 In 1988 Iain McCalman's seminal work Radical Underworld unravelled the complex and clandestine revolutionary networks of democrats that operated in London between 1790 and the beginnings of Chartism to reveal an urban underworld of prophets infidels pornographers and rogue preachers where powerful satirical and subversive subcultures were developed This present volume reflects and builds upon the diversity of McCalman's discoveries to present fresh insights into the culture and operation of popular politics in the age of reform It is a coherent and integrated treatment of the subject that offers a window into this unrespectable underworld and questions whether it was a blackguard subculture or a more complex and rich counter culture with powerful literary legal and political implications This book brings together an international team of experienced scholars to explore the concepts and subjects pioneered by McCalman The volume presents a focused and coherent review of popular politics from the meeting rooms of a reform society and the theatre stage to the forum of the courtroom and the depths of prison Interacting and Organizing Francois Cooren, 2013-09-13 This work provides an exceptional case study shedding light onto the functioning of an actual corporate board of directors It presents analysis of a series of corporate management meetings shown in the 1974 documentary film Corporation After Mr Sam The film chronicles the discussion and communication processes as a company considers how to replace its president and it serves as a unique opportunity for analysis of real world organizational discourse With an impressive list of prominent contributors Interacting and Organizing: Analyses of a Management Meeting employs the dual perspectives of organizational communication and language and social interaction LSI to examine the film It is arranged around specific topics analyzed separately by organizational communication and LSI scholars Editor Francois Cooren provides an introduction for each topic and a comparison and synthesis conclude each part Readers will appreciate the information presented as it is an arena typically off limits to outside eyes The transcript of the film is included as an appendix to the volume This volume is appropriate for use in advanced courses and seminars in organizational communication LSI management and organizational behavior With its distinctive approach to studying the film's content it will be invaluable to scholars researchers and graduate students in organizational communication LSI and management The Responsible Shareholder Bottomley, Stephen, 2021-11-09 Examining the role of shareholders in modern companies this timely book argues that more should be expected of shareholders both morally and legally It explores the privileged position of shareholders within the corporate law system and the unique rights and duties awarded to them in contrast to other corporate actors Introducing the concept of shareholders as responsible agents whose actions and inactions should be judged on that basis Stephen Bottomley unites a number of distinct corporate governance discussions including stewardship activism and shareholder liability Proceedings at a Public Meeting of the Friends of the Borneo Church Mission, held ...
