Field and Jerrica Jordan foreword the collection with an introduction answering the question of why such a volume is necessary in today's educational landscape The introduction summarizes the current scholarship regarding MeToo and Modernism while also uncovering the omissions particularly in approaching nonbinary or queer writers as well as writers of color that still exist as a response many of these essays attempt to approach these gaps

Furthermore the introduction shows how more traditional Modernist writers including Woolf Forster Wells and Joyce served as forerunners of early glimmers of the MeToo Movement in Modernist Literature Modernist Sexualities Hugh Stevens, Caroline Howlett, 2000 Leading critics from Britain Canada and the US examine modernism's imaginative rethinkings of sex gender and sexuality Original essays show how modernism intersects with the suffragette movement technological change and its effects on women and labor the growth of pseudo scientific writings and the burgeoning lesbian and gay movement They show how modernism upsets the fixities of gender and sexuality through its fascination with ambiguities marginality and the crossing of borders Sex reformers and sex changers unsexed storytellers typewriters femme and butch experimenters suffragettes in wide brimmed hats musical and dramatic pageants adolescent delinquents sunbathers and dancing indigenes all play a role in the heterodox and varied modernism revealed in these essays
