Paths Of Love:

Paths Of Love Joseph Bolin,2008-05-31 At last I have found my vocation My vocation is love Love is the heart of every vocation This book about vocation to marriage priesthood or religious life has several unique features First while being addressed to all Catholics not only to theologians it does not oversimplify vocation or give a mere compilation of advice but aims to present the rich depth and wealth of the Christian understanding of vocation in a simple and accessible manner Secondly this book goes right to two great saints at the heart of quite different traditions on vocation namely St Thomas Aquinas and St Ignatius Loyola and the basic difference between them a difference which is often unappreciated or is passed over superficially The goal is not to decide in favor of one over the other nor to examine in detail their historical or theological connection this book rather aims to use these different points of view to convey all that belongs to a full Christian and human approach to vocation Paths of Love Vercors,1961 5 Paths to the Love of Your Life Lauren F.

Paths of Liberation Bakole Wa Ilunga, 2015-09-29 I was born in 1920 in a little country village in the former Belgian Congo I was eight years old at the time the day the first white man visited our isolated village He was a Catholic missionary It was through him and many other priests catechists and teachers that I came to know deeply Jesus Christ who has shown me the path of true liberation My people live in a situation of extreme underdevelopment wretchedness and exploitation My experience as a Christian and a pastor has taught me that our pastoral and evangelizing work should offer persons a total development rooted in the Good News of Jesus Christ One is not possible without the other This is what I have tried to explain in Paths of Liberation Of course too the path Jesus assigns us for the liberation of society from the evils that afflict it is not the shortest of paths It is not enough to make surface changes and the path leads through the heart of the human person which Jesus wishes to change And the human heart is not to be changed in a day But this longer path is also the most effective and the most realistic for only thus do we attack the evil in its roots Have we not found that at the core of all problems is always sin It is precisely from this sin in the human heart that Jesus liberates us by guiding us on the path of continual conversion and uncalculating love
