Handbook on Religion and Health James R. Cochrane, Gary R. Gunderson, Teresa Cutts, 2024-08-06 This revelatory Handbook explores the relationship between religion and health emphasising the effects of organised religion and spirituality on community population and public health While comprehensively summarising the current state of the field it focusses on pursuing new pathways vital for human health in a turbulent world Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing, R5ference Reed, 1995-12 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2002 Baha'i World, 1944 The Ends of Kinship Sienna R. Craig, 2020-10-15 What sustains and remakes family and community through migration For centuries people from Mustang Nepal have relied on agriculture pastoralism and trade as a way of life Seasonal migrations to South Asian cities for trade as well as temporary wage labor abroad have shaped their experiences for decades Yet more recently permanent migrations to New York City where many have settled are reshaping lives and social worlds Mustang has experienced one of the highest rates of depopulation in contemporary Nepal a profoundly visible depopulation that contrasts with the relative invisibility of Himalayan migrants in New York Drawing on more than two decades of fieldwork with people in and from Mustang this book combines narrative ethnography and short fiction to engage with foundational questions in cultural anthropology How do different generations abide with and understand each other How are traditions defended and transformed in the context of new mobilities Anthropologist Sienna Craig draws on khora the Tibetan Buddhist notion of cyclic existence as well as the daily act of circumambulating the sacred to think about cycles of movement and patterns of world making shedding light on how kinship remains both firm and flexible in the face of migration From a high Himalayan kingdom to the streets of Brooklyn and Queens The Ends of Kinship explores dynamics of migration and social change asking how individuals families and communities care for each other and carve out spaces of belonging It also speaks broadly to issues of immigration and diaspora belonging and identity and the nexus of environmental economic and cultural transformation The National Magazine ,1922
