Patton's Illfated Raid:

Patton's Last Gamble Duane Schultz, 2018-05-01 In March 1945 against the advice of his top subordinates Gen George Patton created a special task force to venture more than fifty miles behind enemy lines and liberate a POW camp near Hammelburg Germany The camp held some 1 500 American prisoners including Patton's son in law Hampered by ambushes and a lack of fuel and even maps the raid was a disaster one of the worst mistakes of Patton's legendary career Out of some 300 men only three dozen returned Based on memoirs diaries combat reports and interviews with survivors Patton's Last Gamble vividly recounts a mission Gen Omar Bradley later said began as a wild goose chase and ended in tragedy

Patton's Shadow Nathan C. Jones, 2024-10-19 General George S Patton's legendary image was carefully crafted during World War II and continues to shape our understanding of American history and culture today Historian Nathan C Jones explores the creation of the Patton legend and its enduring legacy in Patton's Shadow Once Upon a Time in War Robert E. Humphrey, 2014-02-06 For the soldier on the front lines of World War II a lifetime of terror and suffering could be crammed into a few horrific hours of combat This was especially true for members of the 99th Infantry Division who repelled the Germans in the Battle of the Bulge and engaged in some of the most dramatic hard fought actions of the war Once Upon a Time in War presents a stirring view of combat from the perspective of the common soldier Author Robert E Humphrey personally retraced the path of the 99th through Belgium and Germany and conducted extensive interviews with more than three hundred surviving veterans When Humphrey discovered that many 99ers had gone to their graves without telling their stories he set about to honor their service and coax recollections from survivors The memories recounted here many of them painful and long repressed are remarkable for their clarity These narratives seamlessly woven to create a collective biography offer a gritty reenactment of World War II from the enlisted
