Harbin,Kim Marra,Robert A. Schanke,2005 Recovers the hidden history of theater professionals who transgressed the gendered expectations of their time Paul Bowles Barry Tharaud,2020 Shows that the writings of Paul Bowles who is often seen as a literary renegade owe much to the antinomian American tradition of Emerson and his literary descendants Conversations with Paul Bowles Paul Bowles,1993 Paul Bowles says Each man s life has the quality he gives it but you can t say that life itself has any qualities If we suffer it s because we haven t learned how not to The man who wrote the books didn t exist No Writer exists He exists in his books and that s all I write unconsciously without knowing what I am writing The ^ABallad of John Latouche Howard Pollack,2017-10-06 In his short life the Virginia born John Treville Latouche 1914 56 made a profound mark on America s musical theater as a lyricist book writer and librettist His signature achievements include theatrical works with composers Earl Robinson Vernon Duke Duke Ellington Jerome Moross and Leonard Bernstein Two Questers in the Twentieth-century North Africa Imen Ayari Cozzo,2016-09-23 This book offers a unique exploration of the work of Paul Bowles and Ibrahim Alkoni and reveals timely insights into the relationship between the West and the Orient showing that they both challenge and extend existing scholarship on this subject It builds on a sound theoretical platform which serves as a solid foundation for the analysis of the overarching theme Theories of place representation Orientalism and post colonialism are discussed in depth and are linked to the deconstruction and analysis of the selected literary texts helping the reader understand the various quests and motivations of the protagonists of the works of Bowles and Alkonni The first part of the book looks into the work of Bowles and is based on the fact that many of the author s texts revolve around the theme of encounters between Western and Eastern cultures It adopts a specific focus on the North African space which is depicted from a number of different points of view including native French English and American perspectives The second section discusses the work of the Libyan author Ibrahim Alkonni as a quester for a Mythical Identity It introduces the reader to the significance of the desert in both classical and modern Arabic literature and its place in the Arabic cultural imaginary This work is highly original both in its approach and subject matter and as such it constitutes a valuable contribution to the study of comparative literature Arabic literature and postcolonial magical realist literature It offers many original insights into this little studied field demonstrating a successful venture into less trodden terrain Aaron Copland Howard
