this specific context Depending on what is regarded as the most pressing challenge for the reasonable defence of the Christian hope in liberal democracies public theologians have focused on social ethics ecclesiology or Soteriology with the aim to strengthen the virtues needed for democratic citizenship Here attention is being paid to Protestant Catholic and Orthodox perspectives The volume further illustrates the characteristics of the discourse by introducing the ways in which public theologians have responded to concrete challenges arising in the spheres of politics economics ecology sports culture and religion To highlight the international scope of the public theological discourse the volume concludes with a summarizing overview of public theological debates in Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and Latin America

The Making of Modern German Christology, 1750-1990, Second Edition Alister E. McGrath, 2005-08-26 The Making of Modern German Christology is a reliable and readable introduction to the central themes and personalities of modern German Christology Germany and northern Switzerland have been the source of a fertile theological tradition since the beginning of the Protestant Reformation in the sixteenth century Moreover the Enlightenment seems to have had its deepest theological impact in Germany and on one area of theology in particular the person and work of Christ Now that chapter in church history seems to be coming to a close with a shift in theological emphasis away from the Continent to North America This book revised and updated from an earlier British edition is therefore a survey of that major chapter in modern theology for students and informed laypeople

The Dialectic of the Holy Robert E. Meditz, 2016-09-12 This is the first published book length treatment on Paul Tillich and Judaism which is a neglected aspect of Tillich's thought It has three compelling features First pivotal biographical details show the importance of Judaism for Tillich and that he ardently opposed anti-Semitism before WWII and after the Holocaust Second Tillich's theological method is examined in key primary sources to show how he maintains continuity between Judaism and Christianity The primary source analysis includes his 1910 and 1912 dissertations on Schelling the 1933 The Socialist Decision the 1952 Berlin lectures on the Jewish Question and his final public lecture on the importance of the history of religion for systematic theology Particular attention is paid to his dialectical and theological history of religion Third Tillich's positive theology of Judaism contrasts sharply with the many complex negative ways in which Judaism is portrayed in Western thought This contributes significantly to our understanding the evolving history of Christian anti-Judaism
