Dana Robinson

Paulinus Noster:

Paulinus Noster Catherine Conybeare, 2000-12-07 The aristocratic convert Paulinus of Nola was revered by contemporaries and correspondents like Augustine of Hippo and Sulpicius Severus as Paulinus noster our Paulinus But his role as a shaper of and exemplar to the early Christian Church has until recently been often overlooked This literate and accessible study examines the profound impact Paulinus had on Christian thought during a crucial period of its development His ideas on friendship Christian symbolism and the nature of personal identity were produced on the cusp of the transition from the classical world to the burgeoning Western Christian civilization by a thinker with strong links to both Paulinus letters and other writings reveal the roots of many important strands of Christian thought the works of Augustine and others attest to this influence The letters of Paulinus and his correspondents portray an early Christian web of shared concepts intellectual discussion and group development Catherine Conybeare examines how the very process of writing and transmitting letters between members of a far flung community helped to bind that community together and to aid the creation of ideas which would continue to reverberate for centuries after Our Paulinus was key to that group iconic as a model of behaviour as a conversion success story and as a intellectual contributor able to bridge the old world and the new

Paulinus Noster Catherine Conybeare, 2000 Augustine and the Catechumenate William Harmless, 2014-12-30 As one of the most influential thinkers in Christian history St Augustine 354 430 had a flair for teaching and meditated deeply on the mysteries of the human heart This study examines a little known side of his career his work as a teacher of candidates for baptism In the revised edition of this seminal book both the text and notes have been revised to better reflect the state of contemporary scholarship on Augustine liturgical studies and the catechumenate both ancient and modern This edition also includes new findings from some of the recently discovered sermons of Augustine and incorporates new perspectives from recent research on early Christian biblical interpretation debates on the Trinity the evolution of the liturgy and much more This reconstruction of Augustine s catechumenate provides fresh perspectives on the day to day life of the early church and on the vibrancy and eloquence of Augustine the preacher and teacher Living Martyrs in Late Antiquity and Beyond Diane Fruchtman, 2023-02-01 This book demonstrates that living martyrdom was an important spiritual aspiration in the late antique Latin west and argues that consequently attempts to define study or locate martyrdom must move away from conceptualizations that require or center on death After an introduction that traces the persistence of living martyrs as real objects of spiritual devotion and emulation across the span of Christian history and discusses why such martyrs have been overlooked the book focuses on three significant authors from the late ancient Latin west for whom martyrdom did not require death the Spanish poet Prudentius c 348 413 the senator turned ascetic Paulinus of Nola 353 431 and the influential North African bishop Augustine of Hippo 354 430 Through historically and literarily contextualized close readings of their work this book shows that each of these three authors attempted to create a new paradigm of martyrdom focused on living rather than dying for God By focusing on these living martyrs we are able to see more clearly the aspirations and agendas of those who promoted them as martyrs and how their martyrological discourse illuminates the variety of ways that martyrdom is and can be mobilized in any era to construct new community creating worldviews Living Martyrs in Late Antiquity and Beyond is an important resource for historians of Christianity scholars of religious studies and anyone interested in exploring or understanding martyrological discourse The Introduction of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Augustine in the Pelagian Controversy Andrew Chronister, Andrew C. Chronister, 2024-10-04 This book examines St Augustine of Hippo's involvement in the Pelagian controversy and argues that this involvement was prompted not simply by his opposition to Pelagian doctrinal views but to a significant degree by his desire to defend Church unity To prove this thesis Andrew Chronister analyzes the historical context of the controversy as well as Augustine's argumentation in his anti Pelagian works Attending to the historical context reveals the fact that at various moments in the controversy Augustine was faced with what he believed to be significant threats to Church unity For example the beginnings of the controversy coincided with a key attempt in June 411 to end the Donatist schism that had split the African Church for a century at the very moment when one schism was being healed another threat to unity appeared in Caelestius and Pelagius At the same time internal evidence in Augustine's anti Pelagian works reveals his desire not only to refute Pelagian doctrinal views but also to undermine the Pelagians' claims that they were simply teaching what the Church had always and everywhere taught This can be seen in a particular way in Augustine's frequent appeals to liturgical and sacramental praxis as well as in his rather novel practice of citing renowned Christian authors as evidence for the antiquity and universality of his views Augustine in the Pelagian Controversy has two main contributions 1 it offers a new perspective on Augustine's involvement in the controversy that makes his prolonged and polemical engagement with the Pelagians more intelligible and 2 it provides a detailed history of the controversy itself

Vivid Rhetoric and Visual Persuasion Meghan Henning, Nils Neumann, 2024-02-22 A major scholarly collaboration exploring vivid visual rhetoric in the New Testament From Jesus's miraculous walk on water to the graphic horrors of hell New Testament authors make vivid and unforgettable images appear before their audience's eyes In the past decade scholarship on early Christian use of ancient rhetorical techniques has flourished One focus of rhetorical criticism of the New Testament has been the function of ekphrasis or vivid visual description In this landmark collection leading New Testament scholars come together to probe the purpose and import of ekphrasis in early Christian literature The research in this collection explores the relationship between vivid rhetoric and genre taking into account technical features authorial intent and audience response Specific topics include The New Testament's rhetoric compared against Greco-Roman rhetorical handbooks Juxtaposition between vivid and non-vivid rhetoric The use of energeia in John's Gospel to draw upon the reader's multiple senses Aesthetics and the grotesque in

Revelation The use of travelogue to create a virtual journey for the audience Vivid rhetoric in early martyr literature Vivid Rhetoric and Visual Persuasion is a must read for scholars of early Christianity and rhetorical criticism Readers will find this collection indispensable in understanding a complex feature of the New Testament in its historical context Contributors Contributors Bart B Bruehler Diane Fruchtmann Meghan Henning Martina Kepper Susanne Luther Harry O Maier Gudrun Nassauer Nils Neumann Vernon K Robbins Gary S Selby Aldo Tagliabue Sunny Kuan Hui Wang Annette Weissenrieder Robyn J Whitaker The Rhetoric of Unity and Division in Ancient Literature Andreas N. Papers Presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies Held in Oxford 2003 Frances Margaret Young, Mark J. Edwards, Paul M. Parvis, 2006 Papers presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 2003 see also Studia Patristica 39 40 41 and 42 The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers These range over the whole field both East and West from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents dates of events and such like and some unveil new texts The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject

Food, Virtue, and the Shaping of Early Christianity Dana Robinson, 2020-08-13 In this book Dana Robinson examines the role that food played in the Christianization of daily life in the fourth century CE Early Christians used the food culture of the Hellenized Mediterranean world to create and debate compelling models of Christian virtue and to project Christian ideology onto common domestic practices Combining theoretical approaches from cognitive linguistics and space place theory Robinson shows how metaphors for piety such as health fruit and sacrifice relied on food related domains of common knowledge medicine agriculture votive ritual which in turn generated sophisticated and accessible models of lay discipline and moral formation She also demonstrates that Christian places and landscapes of piety were socially constructed through meals and food production networks that extended far beyond the Eucharist Food culture thus provided a network of metaphorical concepts and spatial practices that allowed the lay faithful to participate in important debates over Christian living and community formation

Building the Body of Christ Daniel C. Cochran, 2020-11-17 In Building the Body of Christ Daniel C Cochran argues that monumental Christian art and architecture played a crucial role in the formation of individual and communal identities in late antique Italy. The ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs that emerged during the fourth and fifth centuries not only reflected Christianity's changing status within the Roman Empire but also actively shaped those who used them. Emphasizing the importance of materiality and the body in early Christian thought and practice, Cochran shows how bishops and their supporters employed the visual arts to present a Christian identity rooted in the sacred past but expressed in the present through church unity and episcopal authority. He weaves together archaeological and textual evidence to contextualize case studies from Rome, Aquileia, and Ravenna, showing how these sites responded to the diversity of early Christianity as expressed through private rituals and the imperial appropriation of the saints. Cochran shows how these early ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs worked in conjunction with the liturgy to persuade individuals to adopt alternative beliefs, practices, and values that contributed to the formation of institutional Christianity and the Christianization of late antique Italy.
