Creatures of Darkness Gene D. Phillips, 2021-03-17 An exhaustively researched survey of Raymond Chandler's thorny relationship with Hollywood during the classic period of film noir Alain Silver film producer and author Raymond Chandler's seven novels including The Big Sleep 1939 and The Long Goodbye 1953 with their pessimism and grim realism had a direct influence on the emergence of film noir Chandler worked to give his crime novels the flavor of his adopted city Los Angeles which was still something of a frontier town rife with corruption and lawlessness In addition to novels Chandler wrote short stories and penned the screenplays for several films including Double Indemnity 1944 and Strangers on a Train 1951 His work with Billy Wilder and Alfred Hitchcock on these projects was fraught with the difficulties of collaboration between established directors and an author who disliked having to edit his writing on demand Creatures of Darkness is the first major biocritical study of Chandler in twenty years Gene Phillips explores Chandler's unpublished script for Lady in the Lake examines the process of adaptation of the novel Strangers on a Train discusses the merits of the unproduced screenplay for Playback and compares Howard Hawks's director's cut of The Big Sleep with the version shown in theaters Through interviews he conducted with Wilder Hitchcock Hawks and Edward Dmytryk over the past several decades Phillips provides deeper insight into Chandler's sometimes difficult personality Chandler's wisecracking private eye Philip Marlowe has spawned a thousand imitations Creatures of Darkness lucidly explains the author's dramatic impact on both the literary and cinematic worlds demonstrating the immeasurable debt that both detective fiction and the neo noir films of today owe to Chandler's stark vision The American Detective Novel in Translation Daniel Peter LINDER MOLIN,2011-09-01

Empleando una metodología a propia de los estudios descriptivos de traducción se analiza un corpus de cuatro novelas del autor norteamericano Raymond Chandler The Big Sleep 1939 Farewell My Lovely 1940 The Little Sister 1949 y The Long Goodbye 1954 y las traducciones al español publicadas en Argentina y España The Mystery Fancier (Vol. 1 No. 6)

November 1977 Guy M. Townsend,2010-08-01 The Mystery Fancier Volume 1 Number 6 November 1977 contains Raymond Chandler on Film An Annotated Checklist Part I by Peter Pross The Degeneration of Donald Hamilton by George Kelley The Mysterious John Dickson Carr by Larry L French and The Nero Wolfe Saga Part IV by Guy M Townsend Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer,2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e.g. amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir's presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon The Philosophy of Film Noir Mark T. Conard,2005-01-27 An essay collection examining the philosophical elements of select films in noir cinema as well as the genre's legacy in film and culture A drifter with no name and no past driven purely by desire is convinced by a beautiful woman to murder her husband A hard drinking detective down on his luck becomes involved with a gang of criminals in pursuit of a priceless artifact The stories are at once romantic pessimistic filled with anxiety and a sense of alienation and they define the essence of film noir Noir emerged as a prominent American film genre in the early 1940s distinguishable by its use of unusual lighting sinister plots mysterious characters and dark themes From The Maltese Falcon 1941 to Touch of Evil 1958 films from this classic period reflect an atmosphere of corruption and social decay that attracted such accomplished directors as John Huston Alfred Hitchcock Billy Wilder and Orson Welles The Philosophy of Film Noir is the first volume to focus exclusively on the philosophical underpinnings of these iconic films Drawing on the work of diverse thinkers from the French existentialist Albert Camus to the Frankfurt school theorists Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno the volume connects film noir to the philosophical questions of a modern often nihilistic world Opening with an examination of what constitutes noir cinema the book interprets the philosophical elements consistently present in the films themes such as moral ambiguity reason versus passion and pessimism The contributors to the volume also argue that the essence and elements of noir have fundamentally influenced movies outside of the traditional noir period Neo noir films such as Pulp Fiction 1994 Fight Club 1999 and Memento 2000 have reintroduced the genre to a contemporary audience As they assess the concepts present in individual films the contributors also illuminate and explore the philosophical themes that surface in popular culture A close examination of one of the most significant artistic movements of the twentieth century The Philosophy of Film Noir reinvigorates an intellectual discussion at the intersection of popular culture and philosophy Praise for The Philosophy of Film Noir The essays work both as solid primers into philosophy stretching from Aristotle to Schopenhauer and as lucid excursions into the genre s dark mean streets A fascinating readable and provocative book Highly recommended Choice Dense and intriguing the book suggests noir is best perceived as a slightly warped mirror held up to contemporary society Publishers Weekly Mystery Classics on Film Ron Miller,2017-04-26 Watching the screen version of a classic mystery novel can be disappointing By necessity or artistic license or possibly just ego changes are often made by the filmmakers many of them ineffective or even detrimental This book focuses on the screen adaptations of 65 famous mysteries and examines how the filmmakers either succeeded or failed in the telling of the story Interviews with several famous mystery writers are included with their comments on how filmmakers treated their work The History of American Literature on Film Thomas Leitch,2019-06-13 From William Dickson s Rip Van Winkle films 1896 to Baz Luhrmann s big budget production of The Great Gatsby 2013 and beyond cinematic adaptations of American literature participate in a rich and fascinating history Unlike previous studies of American literature and film which emphasize particular authors like Edith Wharton and Nathaniel Hawthorne particular texts like Moby Dick particular literary periods like the American Renaissance or particular genres like the novel this volume considers the multiple functions of filmed American literature as a cinematic genre in its own right one that reflects the specific political and aesthetic priorities of different national and historical cinemas even as it plays a decisive role in defining American literature for a global audience
