 scholarly papers of Diversity in Language Contrastive Studies in Arabic and English Theoretical and Applied Linguistics offer new views on the contrasts between Arabic and English and on contemporary theoretical and applied linguistics Contributors focus on an array of elusive features that make the Arabic language especially difficult for English speakers to understand fully and intuitively Comparative studies of English and Arabic including research on the acquisition of Arabic or English as a second language underscore the concept of diversity Contributors to Diversity in Language also investigate stylistics a major source of diversity between the two languages Practical observations and suggestions may help teachers of Arabic or English as a second language enable students to better understand their second language and become more persuasive and effective in using it The papers assembled here will be a welcome addition to the bookshelves of scholars and students of Arabic contrastive rhetoric and linguistics Teachers of English as a foreign language even if their students are not primarily from an Arabic speaking background can likewise benefit from the insights made in these contrastive studies Contributors Jehan
