Lorca, 2007 Federico Garcia Lorca is perhaps the most celebrated of all twentieth century Spanish writers known not only for his plays but also for several collections of poems published both in his short lifetime and after Lorca's poetry is steeped in the land climate and folklore of his native Andalusia though he writes memorably of New York and Cuba too Writing often in modernist idiom and full of startling imagery he evokes a world of intense feelings silent suffering and dangerous love This unique parallel text edition balances poems from Lorca's early collections with his better known later work providing a clear vision of his poetic development and drawing attention to the brilliance and originality of some of the earlier work Key poems from all Lorca's collections appear here including the recently discovered Sonnets of Dark Love Martin Sorrell's translations are thoughtful and accomplished and D Gareth Walters's shrewd Introduction with its distinctive focus on the achievements of the poet gives a clear and balanced appraisal of the poetry while steering away from the tendency to mythologize Lorca's life and death This edition also includes helpful notes a bibliography a chronology and an index of titles Selected Poems

Charles Tomlinson, 1997 Presenting Charles Tomlinson's finest poems this edition of Selected Poems provides perfect entry into the work of one of England's contemporary masters Rendering with remarkable precision the response of the poet to the surfaces and depths of things as well as the world of historical necessity Tomlinson's poems embody aspects of both tragedy and possibility Collected Poems, 1954-2004 Irving Feldman, 2009-01-16 From a two time National Book Award finalist and one of America's most revered poets comes a glorious gathering of poems that displays his entire career and confirms his place among the great poets of our time Irving Feldman is a master chronicler of our collective experience and an overlooked treasure of American poetry Feldman's rich body of work exhibits his mastery of language from the biblical to the conversational his Yiddish flair for the comic his profound social insight and lucidity He writes about everything from the Coney Island days of his childhood and his bohemian years in postwar New York to the art of Picasso and George Segal from the Holocaust to its aftermath in narrative and dramatic poems and personal lyrics that are by turns ardent witty biting ecstatic and heartbreaking Long a favorite among his fellow poets John Hollander has called his work amazing in its moral intensity Feldman has remained true to the soul's deepest callings I have questioned myself aloud at night in a voice I did not recognize hurried and disobedient hardly brighter What have I kept Nothing Not bread or the bread word What have I offered Rebel in the kingdom my gift has wanted a grace Madeleva Gail Porter Mandell, 1997-01-01 Madeleva was a close friend of C S Lewis Thomas Merton Jacques Maritain and Clare Booth Luce This book paints a picture of daily life in communities of religious women and explores the inner life of a passionately spiritual woman who was known as an advocate for women in the church as well as a scholar poet and essayist Writing in Our Time Pauline Butling, Susan

Rudy, 2009-10-22 Process poetics is about radical poetry poetry that challenges dominant world views values and aesthetic practices with its use of unconventional punctuation interrupted syntax variable subject positions repetition fragmentation and disjunction To trace the aesthetically and politically radical poetries in English Canada since the 1960s Pauline Butling and Susan Rudy begin with the upstart poets published in Vancouver's TISH A Poetry Newsletter and follow the trajectory of process poetics in its national and international manifestations through the 1980s and 90s The poetics explored include the works of Nicole Brossard Daphne Marlatt bpNichol George Bowering Roy Kiyooka and Frank Davey in the 1960s and 70s For the 1980 2000 period the authors include essays on Jeff Derksen Clare Harris Erin Mour and Lisa Robertson They also look at books by older authors published after 1979 including Robin Blaser Robert Kroetsch and Fred Wah A historiography of the radical poets and a roster of the little magazines small press publishers literary festivals and other such sites that have sustained poetic experimentation provide context

Finding Nothing Gregory Betts, 2021-07-30 Experimental literature accelerated dramatically in Vancouver in the 1960s as the influence of New American poetics merged with the ideas of Marshall McLuhan Vancouver poets and artists began thinking about their creative works with new clarity and set about testing and redefining the boundaries of literature As new gardes in Vancouver explored the limits of text and language some writers began incorporating collage and concrete poetics into their work while others delved deeper into unsettling revolutionary and Surrealist imagery There was a presumption across the avant garde communities that radical openness could provoke widespread socio political change In other words the intermedia experimentation and the related destruction of the line between art and society pushed art to the frontlines of a broad socio political battle of the collective imagination of Vancouver Finding Nothing traces the rise of the radical avant garde in Vancouver from the initial salvos of the Tish group through Blewointment's spatial experiments to radical Surrealisms and new feminisms Incorporating images original texts and interviews Gregory Betts shows how the VanGardes signalled a remarkable consciousness of the globalized forces at play in the city impacting communities orientations races and nations

Selected Poems William Wordsworth, 1994 This selection of poetry concentrates on Wordsworth's greatest poems including Lyrical Ballads several tales from The Excursion and over half of The Prelude Selected Poems Octavio Paz, G. Aroul, 1984 Octavio Paz asserts Eliot Weinberger in his introduction to these Selected Poems is among the last of the modernists who drew their own maps of the world For Latin America's foremost living poet his native Mexico has been the center of a global mandala a cultural configuration that in his life and work he has traced to its furthest reaches to Spain as a young Marxist during the Civil War to San Francisco and New York in the early 1940s to Paris as a surrealist in the postwar years to India and Japan in 1952 and to the East again as his country's ambassador to India from 1962 to 1968 and to various universities in the United States throughout the 1970s A great synthesizer the rich diversity of Paz's thought is shown here in all its astonishing complexity Among the sixty seven selections in this volume a gathering in English of his most essential poems drawn from nearly fifty years work are Muriel Rukeyser's now classic version of Sun Stone and new translations by editor Weinberger of Blanco and Maithuna And since for Paz forever in motion there can be no such thing as a definitive text all the poems have been revised to conform to the poet's most recent changes in the original Spanish Besides those by Rukeyser and Weinberger the translations in the Selected Poems are by G Aroul Elizabeth Bishop Paul Blackburn Lysander Kemp Denise Levertov Mark Strand Charles Tomlinson William Carlos Williams and Monique Fong Wust
