Morality in the Marketplace Paul van Geest, 2021-11-22 What does Keynes have to do with Qohelet At first sight economy and theology seem to be disciplines with mutually exclusive objectives Yet as the Covid crisis has recently shown if economic development is to really stand a chance of success it should go hand in hand with relational values like honesty reliability and empathy this will contribute to a society with a culture of reciprocity respect love and trust In this essay Paul van Geest pleads for a renewal of the old ties between economics and theology as scientific disciplines so as to arrive at a deeper and richer anthropological fundament for economic research

Beyond the Marketplace Roger Friedland, A. F. Robertson, 2019-08-21 For at least a half century there has been active debate on the nature of the economy between classical and neoclassical economists and advocates of a more substantivist approach most recently cultural anthropologists The essays are uniformly well written and excellently documented Heartily recommended for academic libraries community college level up S M Soiffer Choice
