Maths Now!. R. Pimentel, T. Wall, National Writing Group, 2001 What's the Point of School? Guy Claxton, 2013-10-01 Why the education system is failing our kids and how we can start the revolution that will save our schools With their emphasis on regurgitated knowledge and stressful exams today s schools actually do more harm than good Guiding readers past the sterile debates about City Academies and dumbed down exams Claxton proves that education s key responsibility should be to create enthusiastic learners who will go on to thrive as adults in a swiftly changing dynamic world Students must be encouraged to sharpen their wits ask questions and think for themselves all without chucking out Shakespeare or the Periodic Table Blending down to earth examples with the latest advances in brain science and written with passion wit and authority this brilliant book will inspire teachers parents and readers of all backgrounds to join a practical revolution and foster in the next generation a natural curiosity and the spirit of adventure

Positive Alternatives to Exclusion Paul Cooper, Mary Jane Drummond, Susan Hart, Jane Lovey, Colleen McLaughlin, 2013-04-03 Positive Alternatives to School Exclusion looks at what schools can do to build more harmonious communities and engage students particularly those at risk of exclusion more productively in all areas of school life It describes the Positive Alternatives to School Exclusion Project a multi phase collaborative initiative based at the School of Education University of Cambridge Drawing on the perspectives of staff and pupils the authors provide detailed case studies of the approaches and strategies being adopted in a variety of settings primary secondary and FE to foster inclusion and reduce and prevent exclusion It also identifies a number of different frameworks drawn from the case studies which can be used by practitioners working in other settings to support their own reflection and development work Particular importance is placed throughout the book on valuing the domain of personal experience in the life of the school community The authors explore this theme in detail suggesting ways in which it might become a priority focus of further development work in schools
