Robby Gallaty is not who you think he is In Recovered pastor and author Robby Gallaty tells the story of how God radically saved him from his addictions and called him into a life of discipleship Robby grew up in a very religious Catholic family who attended church every Sunday and confession on Saturday if needed Very rarely did he miss a Saturday night dinner and a movie with his parents and sister Lori You can imagine how devastated they were when Robby stole 15 000 from them to fuel his drug addiction Two years earlier he was rear ended on his way home from work by an 18 wheeler Two herniated discs in his neck and back forced him to rely on pharmaceutical drugs to cope with the pain Within three months he transitioned to street drugs heroine and cocaine after blowing through his thirty day prescription in two weeks Robbing his parents was the only option to prolong his drug habit Shortly thereafter Robby hit rock bottom But God wasn t done with him After a trip to rehab followed by a relapse and a second rehab visit Robby surrendered his life to Christ and nothing has ever been the same This story a story of salvation and new life is for any reader who wonders if God is done with them has messed up time and time again is battling drug or alcohol addiction or other destructive behaviors has a loved one in the throes of addiction needs to be reminded of the miraculous salvation found in the gospel

Nobody's Business

Brian M. Reed,2013-08-15 Since the turn of the new millennium English language verse has entered a new historical phase but explanations vary as to what has actually happened and why What might constitute a viable avant garde poetics in the aftermath of such momentous developments as 9 11 globalization and the financial crisis Much of this discussion has taken place in ephemeral venues such as blogs e zines public lectures and conferences Nobody s Business is the first book to treat the emergence of Flarf and Conceptual Poetry in a serious way In his engaging account Brian M Reed argues that these movements must be understood in relation to the proliferation of digital communications technologies and their integration into the corporate workplace Writers such as Andrea Brady Craig Dworkin Kenneth Goldsmith Danny Snelson and Rachel Zolf specifically target for criticism the institutions skill sets and values that make possible the smooth functioning of a postindustrial globalized economy Authorship comes in for particular scrutiny how does writing a poem differ in any meaningful way from other forms of content providing While often adept at using new technologies these writers nonetheless choose to explore anachronism ineptitude and error as aesthetic and political strategies The results can appear derivative tedious or vulgar they can also be stirring compelling and even sublime As Reed sees it this new generation of writers is carrying on the Duchampian practice of generating antiart that both challenges prevalent definitions of art and calls into question the legitimacy of the institutions that define it     Book Review Index Gale Group, Thomson Gale Staff, 1999-09
