Culinary Landmarks Elizabeth Driver, 2008-01-01 Culinary Landmarks is a definitive history and bibliography of Canadian cookbooks from the beginning when La cuisinière bourgeoise was published in Quebec City in 1825 to the mid twentieth century Over the course of more than ten years Elizabeth Driver researched every cookbook published within the borders of present day Canada whether a locally authored text or a Canadian edition of a foreign work Every type of recipe collection is included from trade publishers bestsellers and advertising cookbooks to home economics textbooks and fund raisers from church women's groups The entries for over 2 200 individual titles are arranged chronologically by their province or territory of publication revealing cooking and dining customs in each part of the country over 125 years Full bibliographical descriptions of first and subsequent editions are augmented by author biographies and corporate histories of the food producers and kitchen equipment manufacturers who often published the books Driver's excellent general introduction sets out the evolution of the cookbook genre in Canada while brief introductions for each province identify regional differences in developments and trends Four indexes and a Chronology of Canadian Cookbook History provide other points of access to the wealth of material in this impressive reference book

Food in Time and Place Paul Freedman, Joyce E. Chaplin, Ken Albala, 2014-10-31 Food and cuisine are important subjects for historians across many areas of study Food after all is one of the most basic human needs and a foundational part of social and cultural histories Such topics as famines food supply nutrition and public health are addressed by historians specializing in every era and every nation Food in Time and Place delivers an unprecedented review of the state of historical research on food endorsed by the American Historical Association providing readers with a geographically chronologically and topically broad understanding of food cultures from ancient Mediterranean and medieval societies to France and its domination of haute cuisine Teachers students and scholars in food history will appreciate coverage of different thematic concerns such as transfers of crops conquest colonization immigration and modern forms of globalization

Special Reference Briefs, 1983 Invention of the Modern Cookbook Sandra Sherman, 2010-04-15 This eye opening history will change the way you read a cookbook or regard a TV chef making cooking ventures vastly more interesting and a lot more fun Every kitchen has at least one well worn cookbook but just how did they come to be Invention of the Modern Cookbook is the first study to examine that question discussing the roots of these collections in 17th century England and illuminating the cookbook's role as it has evolved over time Readers will discover that cookbooks were the product of careful invention by highly skilled chefs and profit minded publishers who designed them for maximum audience appeal responding to a changing readership and cultural conditions and utilizing innovative marketing and promotion techniques still practiced today They will see how cookbooks helped women adjust to the changes of the Enlightenment and Industrial Revolution by educating them on a range of subjects from etiquette to dealing with household servants And they will learn how the books themselves became modern taking on the characteristics we now take for granted Biographical Catalogue of the Pictures at Woburn Abbey Adeline Marie Somers-Cocks Russell Duchess of Bedford, 1890 Biographical Catalogue of the Pictures at Woburn Abbey Adeline Marie Bedford, Ela Monica Sackville Russell, 1889 Eat My Words Janet Theophano, 2016-01-26 Some people think that a cookbook is just a collection of recipes for dishes that feed the body In Eat My Words Reading Women's Lives through the Cookbooks They Wrote Janet Theophano shows that cookbooks provide food for the mind and the soul as well Looking beyond the ingredients and instructions she shows how women have used cookbooks to assert their individuality develop their minds and structure their lives Beginning in the seventeenth century and moving up through the present day Theophano reads between the lines of recipes for dandelion wine Queen of Puddings and half pound cake to capture the stories and voices of these remarkable women The selection of books looked at is enticing and wide ranging Theophano begins with seventeenth century English estate housekeeping books that served as both cookbooks and reading primers so that women could educate themselves during long hours in the kitchen She looks at A Date with a Dish a classic African American cookbook that reveals the roots of many traditional American dishes and she brings to life a 1950s cookbook written specifically for Americans by a Chinese migr and transcribed into English by her daughter Finally Theophano looks at the contemporary cookbooks of Lynne Rosetto Kaspar Madeleine Kamman and Alice Waters to illustrate the sophistication and political activism present in modern cookbook writing Janet Theophano harvests the rich history of cookbook writing to show how much more can be learned from a recipe than how to make a casserole roast a chicken or bake a cake We discover that women's writings about food reveal and revel in the details of their lives families and the cultures they help to shape Guide to Historical Research at the National Agriculture Library Susan Chapman, 1994 The Aesthetic Body Erec R. Koch, 2008 Those two developments converge to construct an aesthetic body that is in its full etymological sense a body whose principal functions are the production of sensation and affectivity This study examines the importance of the body in the determination of sensibility and passion in French culture of the seventeenth century The Aesthetic Body will engage readers with interests in literature philosophy the history of ideas the history of science and medicine cultural history and political theory of the French early modern period Jacket AB Bookman's Weekly, 1999 American Books on Food and Drink William Rea Cagle, Lisa Killion Stafford, 1998 , The American Humanities Index Stephen H.
