Matthew Arnold A Literary Life:

Matthew Arnold C. Machann,1998-03-18 Matthew Arnold the foremost Victorian man of letters forged a unique literary career first as an important post Romantic poet and then as a prose writer who profoundly influenced the formation of modern literary and cultural studies Machann challenges the popular image of Arnold as an elitist intellectual and shows how his poetry and prose grew out of his personal life and his passionate engagement with the world emphasizing the journal publications that drove his career as a literary social and religious critic Matthew Arnold Clinton Machann,1998-03-15 Nearly everyone agrees that Arnold is a central figure in Victorian literature yet his place in literary history is difficult to define Tracing Arnold s literary development through his life helps us to understand the peculiar nature of his accomplishments Clinton Machann examines the evolution of Arnold s writings and casts new light on the forces that shaped the career of this extraordinary man of letters Matthew Arnold, a Life Park Honan,1981 A detailed biography of the Victorian poet literary and social critic and essayist A Gift Imprisoned Ian Hamilton,1999-02-17 Acclaimed biographer Ian Hamilton explores the life of poet and social prophet Matthew Arnold an impassioned lyric poet who became Victorian England s best known educational reformer and literary critic Matthew Arnold (Esprios Classics) George Saintsbury,2019-11-25 Mr Matthew Arnold like other good men of our times disliked the idea of being made the subject of a regular biography and the only official and authoritative sources of information as to the details of his life are the Letters published by his family under the editorship of Mr G W E Russell 2 vols London 1895 To these therefore it seems to be a duty to confine oneself as far as such details are concerned save as regards a very few additional facts which are public property

Selected Letters of Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold,1993 Selected Letters of Matthew Arnold is a collection of 216 letters by the Victorian poet and critic Matthew Arnold 1822 88 The letters are arranged chronologically and grouped under four headings that represent stages in Arnold s adult life and career The Young Poet 1844 51 The Married Poet and Inspector of Schools 1851 57 The Professor of Poetry and Literary Critic 1857 67 and The Critic of Society and Religion 1867 88 In these letters Arnold who wrote no autobiography tells the story of his life and expresses his intimate views on a variety of subjects In order to include the largest possible selection of interesting letters from both previously published and unpublished sources some of the letters are given in part while others are given in their complete form Along with the most important letters from the 1895 edition by G W E Russell principally made up of letters to family members and the 1932 edition of letters to Author Hugh Clough by Howard F Lowry this new collection incorporates many significant letters from other sources including 49 previously unpublished letters Most of the Russell and Lowry letters have been newly edited using the manuscript collections at Yale University and Balliol College Oxford Twenty-First Century Perspectives on Victorian Literature Laurence W. Mazzeno,2014-03-06 Victorian literature s fascination with the past its examination of social injustice and its struggle to deal with the dichotomy between scientific discoveries and religious faith continue to fascinate scholars and contemporary readers During the past hundred years traditional formalist and humanist criticism has been augmented by new critical approaches including feminism and gender studies psychological criticism cultural studies and others In Twenty First Century Perspectives on Victorian Literature twelve scholars offer new assessments of Victorian poetry novels and nonfiction Their essays examine several major authors and works and introduce discussions of many others that have received less scholarly attention in the past General reviews of the current status of Victorian literature in the academic world are followed by essays on such writers as Charles Dickens Alfred Tennyson Thomas Hardy and the Brontë sisters These are balanced by essays that focus on writing by women the development of the social problem novel and the continuity of Victorian writers with their Romantic forebears Most importantly the contributors to this volume approach Victorian literature from a decidedly contemporary scholarly angle and write for a wide audience of specialists and non specialists alike Their essays offer readers an idea of how critical commentary in recent years has influenced and in some cases changed radically our understanding of and approach to literary study in general and the Victorian period in particular Hence scholars teachers and students will find the volume a useful survey of contemporary commentary not just on Victorian literature but also on the period as a whole

Poetry and Criticism of Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold, 1961 The Portable Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold, Lionel Trilling, 1980 Nineteenth Century Prose, 2007 Gatsby's Oxford Christopher A Snyder, 2019-04-02 The story of F Scott Fitzgerald's creation of Jay Gatsby war hero and Oxford man at the beginning of the Jazz Age when the City of Dreaming Spires attracted an astounding array of intellectuals including the Inklings W B Yeats and T S Eliot A diverse group of Americans came to Oxford in the first quarter of the twentieth century the Jazz Age when the Rhodes Scholar program had just begun and the Great War had enveloped much of Europe Scott Fitzgerald created his most memorable character Jay Gatsby shortly after his and Zelda's visit to Oxford Fitzgerald's creation is a cultural reflection of the aspirations of many Americans who came to the University of Oxford Beginning in 1904 when the first American Rhodes Scholars arrived in Oxford this book chronicles the experiences of Americans in Oxford through the Great War to the beginning of the Great Depression This period is interpreted through the pages of The Great Gatsby producing a vivid cultural history Archival material covering Scholars who came to Oxford during Trinity Term 1919 when Jay Gatsby claims he studied at Oxford enables the narrative to illuminate a detailed portrait of what a historical Gatsby would have looked like what he would have experienced at the postwar university and who he would have encountered around Oxford an impressive array of artists including W B Yeats Virginia Woolf Aldous Huxley and C S Lewis The Fascist Painting: What is Cultural Capital? Phil Beadle, 2020-09-25 The Fascist Painting is a serious rich and deeply intelligent piece of work that will radically alter the way we view culture in schools and will be a key text for anyone designing a curriculum The Ofsted Inspection Framework states that cultural capital is The essential knowledge that pupils need to be educated citizens and that schools should be introducing students to the best that has been thought and said and helping to engender

an appreciation of human creativity and achievement They are now considering the extent to which schools are equipping pupils with the knowledge and cultural capital they need to succeed in life But what does this term mean And how are schools to respond to this In this densely argued and wide ranging text Phil Beadle answers those questions and many more by using the work of Pierre Bourdieu to prompt a discussion of how we improve the provision of cultural capital in our schools Where does the best that has been thought and said come from Why is the government importing the unexamined language of the private school into the state sector What is the real purpose behind character education Does sport as is reputed teach resilience and why would anyone think it was appropriate to teach children a quality they already have Is cultural capital just ruling class culture Chiefly does using a term originated by a French intellectual and radical sociologist to instate the culture of the rich as being superior prove anything other more than a complete absence of thought or have they accidentally given us a radical tool to change education for the better

Encyclopedia of British Writers Christine L. Krueger, 2014-07 This concise encyclopedic reference profiles more than 800 British poets Alfred Tennyson Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2020-08-31 Alfred Tennyson was a poet all his life writing more than a thousand works in virtually every poetic genre Considered by his Victorian contemporaries the pre eminent poet of the age he has become a canonical figure who is widely read and studied today Consequently his poems appear on the syllabi of both survey courses in Victorian literature as well as upper division and graduate level topics courses that cover Victorian studies or address subjects such as environmental studies religion elegiac poetry and Arthurian literature This companion makes Tennyson s poetry accessible to contemporary readers by identifying some of the formal elements of the poems highlighting their relevance to Tennyson s Victorian contemporaries and explaining their enduring appeal and value Entries in the companion organized alphabetically provide essential details about Tennyson s most anthologized poems offer suggestions for reading and interpretation and elucidate unfamiliar historical and literary allusions Additional entries a biography of Tennyson and a selected bibliography of recent criticism offer information about the people places events and issues that influenced Tennyson or were important to him and his contemporaries

A Longing Like Despair Alan Grob, 2002 A major aim of Grob s study is to show Arnold as poet to be possessed of far greater philosophic depth and subtlety than his critics have usually credited him with by identifying the deep affinities and shared weltanschauung of his poetic vision with the metaphysical pessimism of Schopenhauer the major European philosopher whose insistence on the cosmic opposition between the world as will and the world as idea provided the most important philosophic alternative in the nineteenth century to the age s otherwise dominant progressive historicism Jacket

A Secular Age Charles Taylor, 2007-09-20 The place of religion in society has changed profoundly in the last few centuries particularly in the West In what will be a defining book for our time Taylor takes up the question of what these changes mean and what precisely happens when a society becomes one in which faith is only one human possibility among others Matthew Arnold Harold Bloom, 1987 Contains a representative selection of critical essays devoted to the poetry and prose of Matthew Arnold Victorian Poetry and the Culture of Evaluation Clara Dawson,2020 Demonstrates how periodicals newspapers and annuals influenced Victorian poetry and offers fresh interpretations of central Victorian poets including Tennyson Barrett Browning Browning Arnold Landon and Clough Victorian Keats J. Najarian,2002-09-24 This book explores the sexual implications of reading Keats Keats was lambasted by critics throughout the nineteenth century for his sensuousness and his effeminacy The Victorians simultaneously identified with imitated and distrusted the unmanly poet Writers among them Alfred Lord Tennyson Matthew Arnold Gerard Manley Hopkins John Addington Symonds Walter Pater and Wilfred Owen came to terms with Keats s work by creating out of the effeminate poet a sexual and literary ally Masculinity in Four Victorian Epics Clinton Machann,2016-05-06 Offering provocative readings of Tennyson s Idylls of the King Barrett Browning s Aurora Leigh Clough s Amours de Voyage and Browning s The Ring and the Book Clinton Machann brings to bear the ideas and methods of literary Darwinism to shed light on the central issue of masculinity in the Victorian epic This critical approach enables Machann to take advantage of important research in evolutionary psychology cognitive science anthropology among other scientific fields and to bring the concept of human nature into his discussions of the poems The importance of the Victorian long poem as a literary genre is reviewed in the introduction followed by transformative close readings of the poems that engage with questions of gender particularly representations of masculinity and the prevalence of male violence Machann contextualizes his reading within the poets views on social philosophical and religious issues arguing that the impulses drives and tendencies of human nature as well as the historical and cultural context influenced the writing and thus must inform the interpretation of the Victorian epic
