The Fourfold Gospel Francis Watson, 2016-04-12 This groundbreaking approach to the study of the fourfold gospel offers a challenging alternative to prevailing assumptions about the creation of the gospels and their portraits of Jesus How and why does it matter that we have these four gospels Why were they placed alongside one another as four parallel yet diverse retellings of the same story Francis Watson widely regarded as one of the foremost New Testament scholars of our time explains that the four gospels were chosen to give a portrait of Jesus He explores the significance of the fourfold gospel's plural form for those who constructed it and for later Christian communities showing that in its plurality it bears definitive witness to what God has done in Jesus Christ Watson focuses on reading the gospels as a group rather than in isolation and explains that the fourfold gospel is greater than and other than the sum of its individual parts Interweaving historical exegetical and theological perspectives this book is accessibly written for students and pastors but is also of interest to professors and scholars

The Garima Gospels Judith S. McKenzie, Francis Watson, 2016-12-31 The three Garima Gospels are the earliest surviving Ethiopian gospel books They provide glimpses of lost late antique luxury gospel books and art of the fifth to seventh centuries in the Aksumite kingdom of Ethiopia as well as in the Christian East As this work shows their artwork is closely related to Syriac Armenian Greek and Georgian gospel books and to the art of late antique Coptic Egypt Nubia and Himyar Yemen Like most gospel manuscripts the Garima Gospels contain ornately decorated canon tables which function as concordances of the different versions of the same material in the gospels Analysis of these tables of numbered parallel passages devised by Eusebius of Caesarea contributes significantly to our understanding of the early development of the canonical four gospel collection The origins and meanings of the decorated frames portraits of the evangelists Alexandrian circular pavilion and unique image of the Jerusalem Temple are elucidated The Garima texts and decoration demonstrate how a distinctive Christian culture developed in Aksumite Ethiopia while also belonging to the mainstream late antique Mediterranean world Lavishly illustrated in colour this volume presents all of the Garima illuminated pages for the first time and extensive comparative material It will be an essential resource for those studying late antique art and history Ethiopia eastern Christianity New Testament textual criticism and illuminated books

Beyond Canon Meron Gebreananaye, Francis Watson, Logan Williams, 2020-12-24 This book highlights the significance of a group of five texts excluded from the standard Christian Bible and preserved only in Ge'ez the classical language of Ethiopia. These texts are crucial for modern scholars due to their significance for a wide range of early readers as extant fragments of other early translations confirm in most cases. Yet they are also noted for their eventual marginalization and abandonment as a more restrictive understanding of the biblical canon prevailed everywhere except in Ethiopia with its distinctive Christian tradition in which the concept of a closed canon is alien. In focusing upon 1 Enoch, Jubilees, the Ascension of Isaiah, the Epistula Apostolorum, and the Apocalypse of Peter, the contributors to this volume group them together as representatives of a time in early Christian history when sacred texts were not limited by a sharply defined canonical boundary. In doing so, this book also highlights the unique and underappreciated contribution of the Ethiopic Christian Tradition to the study of early Christianity.

The Early Text of the New Testament Charles E. Hill, Michael J. Kruger, 2012-06-14 The Early Text of the New Testament aims to examine and assess from our earliest extant sources the most primitive state of the New Testament text now known. What sort of changes did scribes make to the text? What is the quality of the text now at our disposal? What can we learn about the nature of textual transmission in the earliest centuries? In addition to exploring the textual and scribal culture of early Christianity, this volume explores the textual evidence for all the sections of the New Testament. It also examines the evidence from the earliest translations of New Testament writings and the citations or allusions to New Testament texts in other early Christian writers.

The Didascalicon of Hugh of St. Victor Hugh (of Saint-Victor), 1991 This is the first complete translation into English of Hugh of Saint Victor's Didascalicon. Composed in the late 1130s, the Didascalicon selects and defines all of the important areas of knowledge, demonstrating that not only are these areas essentially integrated but that in their integrity they are necessary for the attainment of human perfection and divine destiny.

Why is there such a surge of Islamist terrorism in the world today, and how are we to respond? Seeking Allah, Finding Jesus In Seeking Allah, Finding Jesus, Nabeel Qureshi describes his dramatic journey from Islam to Christianity, complete with friendships, investigations, and supernatural dreams along the way. Providing an intimate window into a loving Muslim home, Qureshi shares how he developed a passion for Islam before discovering, almost against his will, evidence that Jesus rose from the dead and claimed to be God. Unable to deny the arguments, but not wanting to deny his family, Qureshi's inner turmoil will challenge Christians and Muslims alike.
