Michael F. Morris, 2024-08-07 The Vietnam War ended nearly fifty years ago but the central paradox of the struggle endures how did the world's strongest nation fail to secure freedom for the Republic of Vietnam Michael F Morris addresses this vexing question by focusing on the senior Marine headquarters in the conflict's most dangerous region Known as I Corps the northern five provinces of South Vietnam witnessed the bloodiest fighting of the entire war I Corps also contained the Viet Cong's strongest infrastructure key portions of the Ho Chi Minh Trail and the important political and economic prizes of Hue and Da Nang For Americans it was the site of the first major military operation Operation STARLITE the Battles of Hue City and Khe Sanh during the 1968 Tet Offensive and a military innovation known as the Combined Action Platoon CAP a counterinsurgency technique designed to secure the region's villages The Marine zone served as Saigon's canary in the coal mine if the war was to be won allied action must succeed in its most contested region With such deep significance I Corps holds many answers to the lasting questions of the Vietnam War Following the Marine Amphibious Force III MAF the primary US tactical command in I Corps from 1965 to 1970 Corps Competency provides the first composite analysis of the critical role of the senior Marine headquarters and offers a coherence missing in piecemeal accounts Despite the critical importance of I Corps relatively little is known about its overall impact on the war due to disconnected and patchy historical study of the region In this comprehensive and newly insightful study of the Vietnam War Michael Morris tells a story that illustrates what can happen when a corps headquarters is not ready for the conflict it encounters and then fights the war it wants to rather than the one it must The views expressed in this work are those of the author and not the official position of the United States government Department of Defense Department of the Navy United States Marine Corps or Marine Corps University

Field Marshal Bernard Law Montgomery, 1887-1976 Colin F. Baxter, 1999-10-30 In the desperate summer of 1942 Hitler seemed to be on the verge of victory in Russia and the Middle East With Rommel nearing Cairo a little known lieutenant general Bernard Montgomery took charge of what Churchill called a baffled and bewildered British 8th Army Assuming command Montgomery issued his famous order Here we will stand and fight If we can't stay here alive then let us stay here dead and led the Army to one of the Allies' greatest victories El Alamein Monty became an instantly recognizable Allied leader but as a man with strong views unbending principles and outspoken frankness he was both loved and disliked praised and criticized This bibliography presents and evaluates the extensive body of literature that has grown up around the controversial Field Marshal Any serious study of World War II military campaigns must confront Field Marshal Bernard abroad intruded diverting attention to immediate problems endangering the peace and forcing the White House to devote most of its leadership to the crises of the day As president during this tense period Eisenhower maintained an extensive and revealing correspondence with prominent individuals as well as with personal friends These letters together with the occasional entries made in his diary shed considerable light upon the major national concerns of the 1950s The volumes also include private and secret correspondence previously unavailable to scholars Some of these items have been only recently declassified and many appear here in print for the first time Taken as a whole the Eisenhower papers from 1957-61 provide firm documentary evidence of the manner in which Eisenhower dealt with the complex internal and external problems faced by all of our modern political leaders

NATO Reconsidered Wesley B. Truitt, 2020-10-27 Is NATO still in the best interest of the United States This provocative work argues that the focus on NATO distracts the U S from the vital foreign policy challenges of the 21st century most notably China's rise in power Since its beginning in 1949 NATO the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has been at the center of U S foreign policy The alliance was crucial during the decades of the Cold War and the United States collaborated closely with NATO during crises in Kosovo Afghanistan and Libya But does the NATO alliance still serve the best interests of the U S The NATO of today one that has expanded to 30 member countries risks involving the U S in unwanted military activities of the future actions that were not intended in the original Atlantic alliance In addition the real challenges for foreign policy of 21st century are not in Europe but in the expanding economic powerhouses in Asia especially China NATO Reconsidered argues that the changes in world politics in recent decades requires that the more than 70 year old alliance should no longer be the principal focus of U S foreign policy

The D-Day Landing on Gold Beach Andrew Holborn, 2015-09-24 The Normandy landings of 6 June 1944 across five sectors of the French coast Utah Omaha Gold Juno and Sword constituted the largest amphibious invasion in history This study analyses in depth the preparations and implementation of the D Day landing on Gold Beach by XXX Corps Historians have tended to dismiss the landing on Gold Beach as straightforward but the evidence points to a different reality Armour supported the infantry landing and prior bombing was intended to weaken German defences however the bulk of the bombing landed too far inland and many craft foundered in difficult conditions at sea It was the tenacity of the assault units and the flexibility of the follow up units which enabled the Gold landing to secure the right flank of the British Army in Normandy Using detailed primary evidence from The National Archives and the Imperial War Museum this volume provides a substantial assessment of the background to the landing on Gold and analyses the events of D Day in the wider context of the Normandy Campaign
