Memoirs Space Woman:

Women in Rock Memoirs Cristina Garrigós, Marika Ahonen, 2023 Women in Rock Memoirs vindicates the role of women in rock music. The chapters examine memoirs written by women in rock from 2010 onwards to explore how the artists narrate their life experiences and difficulties they had to overcome not only as musicians but as women. The book includes memoirs written by both well known and lesser known artists and artists from both inside and outside of the Anglo American sphere. The essays by scholars from different research areas and countries around the world are divided into three parts according to the overall themes: Memory, Trauma, and Writing; Authenticity, Sexuality, and Sexism; and Aging, Performance, and the Image. They explore the dynamics of memoir as a genre by discussing the similarities and differences between the women in rock and the choices they have made when writing their books. As a whole, they help form a better understanding of today's possibilities and future challenges for women in rock music.

Memoirs of a Spacewoman Naomi Mitchison, 1962

Iranian Women in the Memoir Emira Derbel, 2017-05-11 This book investigates the various reasons behind the elevation of the memoir previously categorized as a marginalized form of life writing that denudes the private space of women especially in Western Asian countries such as Iran. Through a comparative investigation of Azar Nafisi's Reading Lolita in Tehran and Marjane Satrapi's Persepolis 1 and 2, the book examines the way both narrative and graphic memoirs offer possibilities for Iranian women to reclaim new territory, transgress a post-traumatic revolution, and reconstruct a new model of womanhood that evades socio-political and religious restrictions. Exile is conceptualized as empowering rather than a continued status of loss and disillusionment, and the liminality of both women writers turns into a space of artistic production. The book also resists the New Orientalist scope within which Reading Lolita in Tehran more than Persepolis has been misread. In order to reject these allegations, this work sheds light on the representation of Iranian women in Reading Lolita in Tehran not as weak victims held captive by a totalitarian version of Islam but as active participants rewriting their stories through the liberating power of the memoir. The comparative approach between narrative and comic memoirs is a fruitful way of displaying similar experiences of disillusionment, loss, return, and exile through different techniques. The common thread uniting both memoirs is their zeal to reclaim Iranian women's agency and strength over subservience and passivity.

Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women's autobiography. Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe. A list of more than 200 women's autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars, teachers, and readers.

Navigating Loss in Women's Contemporary

Memoir A. Prodromou, 2015-06-29 Navigating Loss in Women's Contemporary Memoir traces the grief process through the lives of contemporary women writers to show how its complex, multi-layered nature can encourage us towards new understandings of loss.

Transcending the Postmodern Susana Onega, Jean-Michel Ganteau, 2020-03-04 Transcending the

Postmodern The Singular Response of Literature to the Transmodern Paradigm gathers an introduction and ten chapters concerned with the issue of Transmodernity as addressed by and presented in contemporary novels hailing from various parts of the English speaking world Building on the theories of Transmodernity propounded by Rosa María Rodríguez Magda Enrique Dussel Marc Luyckx Ghisi and Irena Ateljevic inter alia it investigates the links between Transmodernity and such categories as Postmodernity Postcolonialism and Transculturalism with a view to help define a new current in contemporary literary production The chapters either follow the main theoretical drives of the transmodern paradigm or problematise them In so doing they branch out towards various issues that have come to inspire contemporary novelists among which the presence of the past the ascendance of new technologies multiculturalism terrorism and also vulnerability interdependence solidarity and ecology in a globalised context In so doing it interrogates the ethics aesthetics and politics of the contemporary novel in English

Celebrity Memoir Hannah Yelin, 2020-11-10 In this timely analysis of the economics of access that surround contemporary female celebrity Hannah Yelin reveals a culture that requires women to be constantly baring all in physical exposure and psychic confessions As famous women tell their story in their own words constellations of ghostwriters intermediaries and market forces undermine assertions of authorship and access to the real woman behind the public image Yelin's account of the presence of the ghostwriter offers a fascinating microcosm of the wider celebrity machine with insights pertinent to all celebrity mediation Yelin surveys life writing genres including fiction photo diary comic strip and art anthology as well as more traditional autobiographical forms covering a wide range of media platforms and celebrity contexts including reality TV YouTube pop stardom and porn glamour modelling Despite this diversity Yelin reveals seemingly inescapable conventions as well as spaces for resistance Celebrity Memoir from Ghostwriting to Gender Politics offers new insights on the curtailment of women's voices with ramifications for literary studies of memoir feminist media studies celebrity studies and work on the politics of production in the creative industries

Memoirs Marie Mancini, Hortense Mancini, 2009-05-15 The memoirs of Hortense 1646-1699 and of Marie 1639-1715 Mancini nieces of the powerful Cardinal Mazarin and members of the court of Louis XIV represent the earliest examples in France of memoirs published by women under their own names during their lifetimes Both unhappily married Marie had also fled the aftermath of her failed affair with the king the sisters chose to leave their husbands for life on the road a life quite rare for women of their day Through their writings the Mancinis sought to rehabilitate their reputations and reclaim the right to define their public images themselves rather than leave the stories of their lives to the intrigues of the court and to their disgruntled ex husbands First translated in 1676 and 1678 and credited largely to male redactors the two memoirs reemerge here in an accessible English translation that chronicles the beginnings of women's rights to personal independence within the confines of an otherwise circumscribed early modern aristocratic society

Black Women's Yoga History Stephanie Y. Evans, 2021-03-01 How have Black women elders managed stress In Black Women's Yoga History Stephanie Y Evans uses primary sources to answer that question and to show how meditation and yoga from eras of enslavement segregation and migration to the Civil Rights Black Power and New Age movements have been in existence all along Life writings by Harriet Jacobs Sadie and Bessie Delany Eartha Kitt Rosa Parks Jan Willis and Tina Turner are only a few examples of personal case studies that are included here illustrating how these women managed traumatic stress anxiety and depression In more than fifty yoga memoirs Black women discuss practices of reflection exercise movement stretching visualization and chanting for self care By unveiling the depth of a struggle for wellness memoirs offer lessons for those who also struggle to heal from personal cultural and structural violence This intellectual history expands conceptions of yoga and defines inner peace as mental health healing and wellness that is both compassionate and political Youth and Memory in Europe Félix Krawatzek, Nina Friess, 2022-06-06 This volume contends that young individuals across Europe relate to their country's history in complex and often ambivalent ways It pays attention to how both formal education and broader culture communicate ideas about the past and how young people respond to these ideas The studies collected in this volume show that such ideas about the past are central to the formation of the group identities of nations social movements or religious groups Young people express received historical narratives in new potentially subversive ways As young people tend to be more mobile and ready to interrogate their own roots than later generations they selectively privilege certain aspects of their identities and their identification with their family or nation while neglecting others This collection aims to correct the popular misperception that young people are indifferent towards history and prove instead that historical narratives are constitutive to their individual identities and their sense of belonging to something broader than themselves Transforming Memories in Contemporary Women's Rewriting L. Plate, 2010-12-08 Including topics as diverse as feminism and its relationship to the marketplace plagiarism and copyright silence and forgetting and myth in a digital age this book explores the role of rewriting within feminist literature from the 1970s onwards in relation to the theme of cultural memory Beyond the Pulpit Lisa J. Shaver, 2012-01-22 In the formative years of the Methodist Church in the United States women played significant roles as proselytizers organizers lay ministers and majority members Although women's participation helped the church to become the nation's largest denomination by the mid nineteenth century their official roles diminished during that time In Beyond the Pulpit Lisa Shaver examines Methodist periodicals as a rhetorical space to which women turned to find and make self meaning In 1818 Methodist Magazine first published memoirs that eulogized women as powerful witnesses for their faith on their deathbeds As Shaver observes it was only in death that a woman could achieve the status of minister Another Methodist publication the Christian Advocate was America's largest circulated weekly by the mid 1830s It featured the Ladies Department a column that reinforced the canon of women as dutiful wives mothers and household managers Here the church also affirmed women in the important rhetorical and evangelical role of domestic preacher Outside the Ladies Department women increasingly appeared in little narratives in which they were portrayed as models of piety and charity benefactors

organizers Sunday school administrators and teachers missionaries and ministers assistants These texts cast women into nondomestic roles that were institutionally sanctioned and widely disseminated By 1841 the Ladies Repository and Gatherings of the West was engaging women in discussions of religion politics education science and a variety of intellectual debates As Shaver posits by providing a forum for women writers and readers the church gave them an official rhetorical space and the license to define their own roles and spheres of influence As such the periodicals of the Methodist church became an important public venue in which women's voices were heard and their identities explored

Girl on the Edge: A Memoir Carneson, Ruth, 2015-03-05 Ruth was four years old when her father was arrested for high treason and her world was turned upside down She grew up in constant fear of Special Branch policemen knocking on the door to arrest her mother or father prominent South African communists Ruth learned how to keep her mouth shut to look out for microphones in the walls and to beware of friends who could betray her trust At fourteen Ruth left South Africa clutching her teddy bear in one hand and her drawings in the other A plan to England carried her into exile a new world where she struggled to reconstruct a life fractured by fear With an artist's eye for detail and colour Ruth recalls her life with unflinching honesty the Treason Trial her struggle to conform Friern Barnet Asylum for the hopeless insane LSD protests and free love in London art school and motherhood communes and camping all steps in a journey that finally brought her home to South Africa on the brink of change Heart wrenchingly sad one minute bursting with life and vigour the next seamed throughout by strength and courage girl on the edge allows us to look deep into one woman's life and travel with her to the brink and back again

Publishing Women's Life Stories in France, 1647-1720 Elizabeth C. Goldsmith, 2017-03-02 In this new study Elizabeth Goldsmith continues her pursuit of issues treated in her earlier books on conversation epistolary writing and the female voice in literature She examines how French women in the seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries first came to publish their private life stories in doing so she explores what the writers have to say about why they decide to write about themselves what they choose to write how they get their stories circulated and printed and what they do to defend themselves against the threat to personal reputation and credibility that was implied by such public self exposure Goldsmith scrutinizes the autobiographical writing of six women all of whom were for different reasons the objects of fairly intense publicity during their lifetime at the historical moment when the idea of publicity via the printed word was still a new concept Three of the women Jeanne des Anges Marie de l'Incarnation and Jeanne Guyon were charismatic religious figures whose writings were widely circulated The other three writers the sisters Hortense and Marie Mancini and Madame de Villegieu are more worldly but like their spiritual counterparts they undertook self publication as a form of conversation with the world and a way of participating in other forms of public discourse Publishing Women's Life Stories in France 1647-1720 considers the different forms that the life writing of these three women took autobiographies letter correspondences which in four of the six cases have never before been published trial transcripts testimonials published as part of other authors works and written self

Italian Women and Autobiography Fabiana Cecchini, Ioana Raluca Larco, 2011-01-18 The essays included in this collection examine issues such as identity and ideology which are at play in the female autobiography practice along with the problematicity that these trigger in terms of self representation and traditional formal boundaries The women writers analyzed here through mainly historical literary feminist and psychoanalytic lenses cover a long period in the history of Italy spanning from the Fascist era to our time In an attempt to organize and connect these texts which are chronologically far apart we have divided our contributions into two main parts The first Shapes of Ideology includes authors interacting primarily with political ideology in a way that eventually entails the challenge of the official technologies of gender De Lauretis 1987 and implicitly a reflection on the gendered identity In the second part Reconsidering ideology negotiating autobiography while the political ideology is not completely excluded it becomes however something more internalized and relevant to the writers quest for identity Such process bears consequences with respect to the canon of autobiography as authors experiment with new forms of autobiographical narratives and readers become more and more an integral component of this personal endeavor

Utopian and Science Fiction by Women Jane L. Donawerth, Carol A. Kolmerten, 1994-07-01 This collection speaks to common themes and strategies in women s writing about their different worlds from Margaret Cavendish s seventeenth century Blazing World of the North Pole to the men less islands of the French writer Scudery to the eighteenth and nineteenth century utopias of Shelley and Gaskell and science fiction pulps finishing with the more contemporary feminist fictions of Le Guin Wittig Piercy and Michison It shows that these fictions historically speak to each other and together amount to a literary tradition of women s writing about a better place

Arabic Disclosures Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2022-06-15 Arabic Disclosures presents readers with a comparative analysis of Arabic postcolonial autobiographical writing In Arabic Disclosures Muhsin J al Musawi investigates the genre of autobiography within the modern tradition of Arabic literary writing from the early 1920s to the present Al Musawi notes in the introduction that the purpose of this work is not to survey the entirety of autobiographical writing in modern Arabic but rather to apply a rigorously identified set of characteristics and approaches culled from a variety of theoretical studies of the genre to a particular set of autobiographical works in Arabic selected for their different methodologies varying historical contexts within which they were conceived and written and the equally varied lives experienced by the authors involved The book begins in the larger context of autobiographical space where the theories of Bourdieu Bachelard Bakhtin and Lefebvre are laid out and then considers the multiple ways in which a postcolonial awareness of space has impacted the writings of many of the authors whose works are examined Organized chronologically al Musawi begins with the earliest modern example of autobiographical work in h usayn s book translated into English as The

Stream of Days Al Musawi studies some of the major pioneers in the development of modern Arabic thought and literary expression Jurj Zayd n M k l Nu aymah A mad Am n Sal mah M s Sayyid Qu b and untranslated works by the prominent critic and scholar amm d amm d the novelist liah Mamd and others He also examines the autobiographies of a number of women including Naw l al Sa d w and Fadw q n and fiction writers The book draws a map of Arab thought and culture in its multiple engagements with other cultures and will be useful for scholars and students of comparative literature Arabic studies and Middle Eastern studies intellectual thought and history
