Thresholds and Pathways Between Jung and Lacan Ann Casement, Phil Goss, Dany Nobus, 2020-10-12 This groundbreaking book was seeded by the first ever joint Jung Lacan conference on the notion of the sublime held at Cambridge England against the backdrop of the 100th anniversary of the outbreak of the Great War It provides a fascinating range of in depth psychological perspectives on aspects of creativity and destruction inherent in the monstrous awe inspiring sublime The chapters include some of the outcrop of academic and clinical papers given at this conference with the addition of new contributions that explore similarities and differences between Jungian and Lacanian thinking on key topics such as language and linguistics literature religion self and subject science mathematics and philosophy The overall objective of this vitalizing volume is the development and dissemination of new ideas that will be of interest to practising psychoanalysts psychotherapists and academics in the field as well as to all those who are captivated by the still revolutionary thinking of Jung and Lacan The Journal of Hellenic Studies ,1880 Along the Path Elliot R. Wolfson,2012-02-01 This book explores the fundamental issues in Jewish mysticism and provides a taxonomy of the deep structures of thought that emerge from the texts The English Change Network Cristiano Broccias,2013-07-05 This book introduces the notion of change construction and systematically studies within a Cognitive Grammar framework the rich inventory of its instantiations in English from well known structures such as the so called resultative construction to a variety of largely ignored types such as asymmetric resultatives sublexical change constructions and mildly causal constructions The Routledge Handbook of Literacy Studies Jennifer Rowsell,Kate Pahl,2015-05-15 The Routledge Handbook of Literacy Studies offers a comprehensive view of the field of language and literacy studies With forty three chapters reflecting new research from leading scholars in the field the Handbook pushes at the boundaries of existing fields and combines with related fields and disciplines to develop a lens on contemporary scholarship and emergent fields of inquiry The Handbook is divided into eight sections The foundations of literacy studies Space focused approaches Time focused approaches Multimodal approaches Digital approaches Hermeneutic approaches Making meaning from the everyday Co constructing literacies with communities This is the first handbook of literacy studies to recognise new trends and evolving trajectories together with a focus on radical epistemologies of literacy The Routledge Handbook of Literacy Studies is an essential reference for undergraduate and postgraduate students and those researching and working in the areas of applied linguistics and language and literacy Inscription and Rebellion Sonja E. Klocke,2015 Employs research on the GDR s healthcare system along with feminist and queer theory to get at socialism s legacy revealing a specifically East German literary convention employment of symptomatic female bodies to either enforce or rebel against political and social norms
