Pathways Out Of Poverty Private Firms And Economic Mobility In Developing Countries:

Pathways Out of Poverty Gary S. Fields, Guy Pierre Pfeffermann, 2003-10-30 How private firms contribute to economic mobility and poverty reduction and what governments can do to enhance their contributions is the theme of this book The positive role often underemphasized the private sector plays in economic development is looked at Also the labour market and how various mechanisms in the economy interact to affect conditions for people as workers and as consumers The links among the business environment private sector development economic growth poverty reduction and economic mobility are also examined

Pathways Out of Poverty Gary S. Fields, Guy Pierre Pfeffermann, 2003-09-30 Identifies the ways in which private firms and farms contribute to economic mobility and poverty reduction and what governments can do to enhance this contribution

Pathways Out of Poverty Gary S. Fields, 2013-12-01 Until recently development economists tended to assume a role for private enterprises in reducing poverty without articulating it explicitly How private firms contribute to economic mobility and poverty reduction and what governments can do to enhance their contribution is the theme of this book In developing countries private enterprise is far and away the largest source of employment and investment and a significant source of government revenue In addition to these tangible contributions private enterprise is an important source of less tangible but critically important factors such as openness to ideas innovation and opportunity The book presents new evidence which demonstrates the essential role which private firms are playing in the course of economic development Throughout the focus is on economic mobility Regional case studies ranging from the Far East to Sub Saharan Africa hone in on the role of entrepreneurship in development Drawing on the rich materials of the World Bank's Worldwide Business Environment Survey key policy factors are identified Special attention is paid to obstacles facing small and medium sized enterprises The concluding chapters focus on practical ways in which governments of developing and transition countries can encourage the capacity of poor people to move up the economic ladder

Ways Out of Poverty Michael U. Klein, 2003

Entrepreneurship as a Route out of Poverty Tolu Olarewaju, 2023-09-25 This book examines how entrepreneurship can be used as a tool to escape poverty With relevance for both SDG 1 No Poverty and SDG 8 Promote sustained inclusive and sustainable economic growth full and productive employment and decent work for all it pays special attention to women and minority ethnic groups Offering a fresh perspective on entrepreneurship as a means of upward social mobility and rooted in research the book explores the issue in three ways Firstly it pays special attention to the nexus between the entrepreneur resources institutions opportunities necessities and the environment for drawing a comprehensive picture of how individuals could use entrepreneurship for successful upward social mobility in a changing world Secondly it emphasizes the peculiar challenges that female entrepreneurs face how those challenges can be overcome and how female entrepreneurship may be a route to women's socio economic advancement Thirdly it highlights the challenges faced by ethnic minority business owners and how such ethnic minority businesses could thrive amid institutional voids as well as direct and indirect forms of discrimination Based on the latest research from developed and developing countries the book offers compelling insights for sustaining entrepreneurial ventures in an evolving world Growth and Empowerment Nicholas Stern,F. Halsey Rogers,Jean-Jacques Dethier,2006-08-11 Despite significant gains in promoting economic growth and living conditions or human progress globally over the last twenty five years much of the developing world remains plagued by poverty and its attendant problems including high rates of child mortality illiteracy environmental degradation and war In Growth and Empowerment Nicholas Stern Jean Jacques Dethier and F Halsey Rogers propose a new strategy for development Drawing on many years of work in development economics in academia in the field and at international institutions such as the World Bank the authors base their strategy on two interrelated approaches building a climate that encourages investment and growth and at the same time empowering poor people to participate in that growth This plan differs from other models for development including the dogmatic approach of market fundamentalism popular in the 1980s and 1990s Stern Dethier and Rogers see economic development as a dynamic process of continuous change in which entrepreneurship innovation flexibility and mobility are crucial components and the idea of empowerment as both a goal and a driver of development is central The book points to the unique opportunity today after 50 years of successes and failures and with a growing body of analytical work to draw on to pursue new development strategies in both research and action International Labour Review Organisation internationale du travail, Bureau international du travail, What Have We Learned from a Decade of Manufacturing Enterprise Surveys in Africa ? Arne Bigsten,Måns Söderbom,2005 In the early 1990s the World Bank launched the Regional Program on Enterprise Development in several African countries a key component of which was the collection of manufacturing firm level data In this paper the authors review the research based on the data sets generated by these and subsequent firm surveys in Africa with a special view to what they think are the most important policy implications The authors survey the research on the African business environment focusing on market size risk access to credit labor and infrastructure They cover the research on how firms choose to organize themselves and how firms do business They review the research on firm performance including firm growth investment and technology acquisition and exports They conclude with an extended discussion of the policy lessons World Bank web site Moving Out of Poverty Deepa Narayan,Patti Petesch,2007-07-30 This book brings together the latest thinking about poverty dynamics from diverse analytic traditions While covering a vast body of conceptual and empirical knowledge about economic and social mobility it takes the reader on compelling journeys of multigenerational accounts of three villages in Kanartaka India twelve years in the life of a street child in Burkina Faso and much more Leading development practitioners and scholars from the fields of anthropology economics political science and sociology critically examine the literature from their disciplines and contribute new frameworks and evidence from their own works The Moving Out of Poverty series launched in 2007 is under the editorial direction of Deepa Narayan Senior Advisor of the World Bank and former director of the pathbreaking Voices of the Poor series It features the results of new comparative research across more than 500 communities in 15 countries to understand how and why people move out of poverty and presents other work which builds on interdisciplinary and contextually grounded understandings of growth and poverty reduction

Poverty Reduction and Pro-Poor Growth The Role of Empowerment OECD,2012-04-27 Empowerment of those living in poverty is both a critical driver and an important measure of poverty reduction This report aims to build donor understanding of empowerment and how best to support it
