Return to the Far Side of Planet Moore! Martin Mobberley, 2015-03-20 The result of an exhaustive study of Sir Patrick Moore's observations of the Moon and planets for more than 60 years this book is a fantastic companion to the extremely popular It Came From Outer Space Wearing an RAF Blazer written by the same author Moore recorded his telescopic observations in his logbooks which are reproduced and described here in detail along with his sketches and notes In this light the author discusses the factors that caused Moore to switch from lunar observing to planetary and variable star observing He has also included personal recollections and humorous anecdotes from Moore's friends and acquaintances as well as a look at his best loved books Further chapters describe Moore's foreign travels and correspondence with those back home Lastly the author has not neglected a few of Moore's most memorable television and radio appearances which are examined along with a close up of what it was like to visit Moore's beloved home of Farthings in Selsey Essentially this is a book written by popular demand from the readers of the author's original biography who craved more of Moore Patrick

Hofmann, D. Krahn, V. R. Matas, Dr. Lutz D. Schmadel, G. Zech, 2013-11-11 From the reviews Astronomy and Astrophysics Abstracts has appeared in semi annual volumes since 1969 and it has already become one of the fundamental publications in the fields of astronomy astrophysics and neighbouring sciences It is the most important English language abstracting journal in the mentioned branches The abstracts are classified under more than a hundred subject categories thus permitting a quick survey of the whole extended material The AAA is a valuable and important publication for all students and scientists working in the fields of astronomy and related sciences As such it represents a necessary ingredient of any astronomical library all over the world Space Science Reviews 1 Dividing the whole field plus related subjects into 108 categories each work is numbered and most are accompanied by brief abstracts Fairly comprehensive cross referencing links relevant papers to more than one category and exhaustive author and subject indices are to be found at the back making the catalogues easy to use The series appears to be so complete in its coverage and always less than a year out of date that I shall certainly have to make a little more space on those shelves for future volumes The Observatory Magazine 2 Astronomers Anonymous

Steve Ringwood,2010-07-05 During more than four decades of involvement in amateur astronomy I have enjoyed the privilege of rubbing shoulders with numberless amateur and professional astronomers In so doing I have encountered at first second and third hand many of the joys and pitfalls that sky watchers can experience in pursuit of the universe's wonders I have often howled at tall tales that would not disgrace a pirate's tavern Many of these astounding stories have become the kernels of my Dear Steve column items Learning how to operate the technology for observing and imaging the universe is work enough for any aspiring astronomer however many have problems of their own making Not only do they share these troubles with other astronomers they are on the receiving end of colleagues and friends doing the same With all these agonized communications flying about it is hard to understand how anyone gets any real work done For the amusement of my peers I have long fondly parodied these imagined literary exchanges These fantasy Agony Aunt questions began appearing in the pages of the Loughton Astronomical Society's monthly and Christmas Special journals about 30 years ago in the guise of The astronomer's problem page This was by the kind indulgence of the then editor namely myself Happily even when the magazine of the LAS evolved into something much better under the tender and loving care of those who came after me these problem letters were still in demand and even now occasionally appear
