Literary Motifs and Patterns in the Hebrew Bible Shemaryahu Talmon, 2013-07-01 This collection gathers together Professor Shemaryahu Talmon's contributions to the literary study of the Bible and complements his acclaimed Literary Studies in the Hebrew Bible Form and Content Collected Studies Jerusalem Magnes Leiden Brill 1993 The articles included herein span a broad range of topics closely and comprehensively assessing fundamental themes and stylistic conceits present in biblical literature Each study picks up one of these motifs or patterns and traces its meaning and usage throughout the entire Bible In Talmon's estimation these literary markers transcend all strata of the Bible and despite diachronic developments they retain their basic meanings and connotations throughout even when employed by different authors over a span of hundreds of years He demonstrates this convincingly by marshaling dozens of examples each of which is valuable in its own right and when taken all together these building blocks form a solid edifice that validate his approach He judiciously employs this synchronic method throughout frequently invoking an exegetical principle according to which one biblical verse can be employed to interpret the other if they are found in similar contexts and with overlapping formulation To use an expression that he coined elsewhere his hermeneutical method can be described first and foremost as The World of the Bible from Within Throughout the articles that appear in this volume one is repeatedly struck by his sensitivity to the language and style of the biblical authors He was blessed with a rich literary intuition and shares with his readers his ability to see hear and understand the rhythms and poetics of biblical literature In this volume many of Talmon's contributions are made accessible in fresh form to the benefit of both those who already know his work and to a newer generation of scholars for whom his work continues to prove important A Survey of Chinese Literature Zhu Zhirong, 2024-07-20 This book presents a systematic elaboration on Chinese literature and its criticism with special reference to introducing the predominant role of idea image The author holds that image takes on a central position in Chinese literature Chinese literature is composed of idea images that depict the scenery and express the emotions in perfect harmony conveyed through literary language reflecting the unique aesthetic sensibilities and the creative consciousness of Chinese people It is created by Chinese literati with an emotion centered soul who experience nature and society with a mode of comprehension rooted in sensibility yet not confined to it Drawing from the traditional Chinese culture and incorporating the creative expression of Chinese literati the author expounds systematically on Chinese literature s basic features and living spirit which are centered on the idea image Furthermore the author discusses the transitional patterns observed in both highbrow and vernacular Chinese literature Embracing a modern research perspective the author not only provides insights into traditional literature but also sheds light on its contemporary relevance This endeavor unveils the unique values inherent in Chinese literature at a profound level thereby offering invaluable insights into the essence and spirit of Chinese literary tradition

The Concept of Literary Application Anders Pettersson,2012-09-18 Application is the process in which readers of literature focus on elements in a text and compare them with the outside world as they know it an operation with cognitive and emotional consequences This book demonstrates how and why this simple yet neglected mechanism is of profound importance for the understanding of literary art and experience
