Patterns Of Preaching A Sermon Sampler:

Patterns of Preaching Ronald J. Allen, 1998-01-01 This collection of sermons by noted homiletics illustrates thirty four distinct styles of contemporary and traditional preaching Patterns of preaching : a sermon sampler Ronald J. Allen (ed), 1998

The Heart of Black Preaching Cleophus James LaRue, 2000-01-01 LaRue provides important insights on why black preaching is strong and active and connects with the real life experiences of listeners Christian The

Sacramentality of Preaching Todd Townshend, 2009 In the time of the church transformation renewal and the process of coming to faith rely on the symbolic efficacy of speech where God is encountered as a word The Sacramentality of Preaching examines the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and incorporates it into contemporary homiletical theory in order to bolster and renew Christian proclamation that has an intentionally sacramental character Liturgical preachers will find practical pathways frameworks and common language through the use of this innovative sacramentology Preaching Words John

S. McClure, 2007-01-01 John McClure sPreaching Wordshighlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today s preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching Confessing Jesus Christ David J. Lose, 2003-03-04 With its relentless insistence that there is no reality beyond that which we construct postmodern thought questions the presuppositions of many disciplines including homiletics Offering a lively description of the postmodern worldview and its implications for Christian faith Confessing Jesus Christ by David Lose teaches preachers how to rise to the challenges posed by our postmodern world Few if any books on preaching offer such a comprehensive investigation of postmodern thought or yield such a wealth of insights for relevant Christian proclamation Significantly Lose sees postmodernism not primarily as an obstacle to the church but as an opportunity for it to stand once again on faith alone rather than on attempts to prove the faith According to Lose preaching that seeks to be both faithful to the Christian tradition and responsive to our pluralistic postmodern context is best understood as the public practice of confessing faith in Jesus Christ He explores the practical implications of a confessional homiletic for preaching and also provides concrete methods for preparing sermons that meaningfully bridge biblical texts and contemporary congregations Telling the Whole Story John C.

Holbert, 2013-03-01 Telling the Whole Story is both a book about preaching and reading the narratives of the Hebrew Bible John C Holbert PhD in Hebrew Bible was a longtime teacher of preaching and Hebrew Bible at Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University having retired in 2012 after thirty three years In this volume he combines his two skills of careful narrative reading and imaginative story preaching to offer the first comprehensive look at this particular kind of sermon proclamation The reader will also find here an introduction to the long history of story preaching in the history of the church as well as a primer both in ways to read the narratives more effectively and ways to preach several varieties of story sermons At the heart of this book four narratives from the Hebrew Bible are exegeted and are accompanied by four story sermons based on those texts Genesis 22 Samuel 15 Judges 4 and Jonah The goal of the book is to help preachers who are looking for effective ways to proclaim the gospel using narrative texts from the Hebrew Bible to allow the rich stories of the texts to sound their ancient truth to the modern world

Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku,2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God

The Web of Preaching Richard L. Eslinger,2002-08-01 Preaching is not as simple as it may appear The preacher today is confronted with a dizzying array of homiletic methods and approaches each holding important insights into how to proclaim the Good News While pastors wish to learn from these different ways of preaching they often do not know where to begin Who are the best representatives of a given approach How do the different methods relate to one another How has the preaching scene changed in recent years In The Web of Preaching Richard Eslinger addresses these and other questions about contemporary approaches to preaching Surveying the most important current theories of preaching he argues that no homiletic method can be understood on its own The different schools of thought on preaching all intersect at such common points as Scripture narrative and the role of preaching in worship A strength in one compensates for a weakness in another and seen together they form one comprehensive web of preaching This book is a follow up to Eslinger's earlier A New Hearing which has been a standard text in preaching courses since its publication in 1987
