Homer L. Patterson

Pattersons American Education 2000 Vol 96:

Education Policy for the 21st Century Lawrence B. Joseph, 2001 Amid widespread concern that schools are failing to prepare students for workforce participation higher education and the economic and technological challenges of the twenty first century public school reform efforts across the nation have focused increasingly on standards performance and accountability A particularly critical question involves improving educational opportunities for children in poverty and for other at risk students who represent an increasing proportion of public school enrollment Education Policy for the 21st Century examines a range of key issues in standards based education reform Contributors focus on educational trends and issues in metropolitan Chicago state education policy in Illinois lessons of Chicago school reform and standards based systemic reform in other states The volume also includes chapters on standards and assessment in school accountability systems effects of school spending on student achievement and building level obstacles to urban school reform Presenting valuable data and a variety of perspectives this book illuminates both the challenges and opportunities presented by standards based education reform

Crespar Findings (1994-1999) A. Wade Boykin, Robert E. Slavin, 2014-10-13 This double issue presents summaries of the scholarly and practical reform accomplishments of the first five years of the Center for Research on the Education of Students Placed at Risk CRESPAR This bold five year initiative addressed several of the problems that most directly challenge the values and practical aspirations of modern democracies The included articles emphasize how CRESPAR has focused on the schools in many of America s most challenging communities It has both helped local schools improve themselves and advanced the nation s research base This issue was written in commemoration of the life and work of John Henry Hollifield Jr founding coeditor For 28 years Hollifield served as an editor and administrator at Johns Hopkins University s Center for Social Organization of Schools When JESPAR was just an idea Hollifield was one of the people who most strongly advocated its development He had a ready smile a fine editorial touch and a relentless will to produce each excellent issue This issue summarizing much of the research from CRESPAR s first five years is presented by the full team of authors in his loving memory

Catholic Schools Gerald Grace, 2002-11 In this ground breaking book Gerald Grace addresses the dilemmas facing Catholic education in an increasingly secular and consumer driven culture Theory and original research drawn from interviews with Catholic headt are combined

The Broken Cisterns of African American Education M. Christopher Brown, RoSusan D. Bartee, 2008-12-01 The failure of American education to achieve racial diversity has resulted from the inability of educational researchers policy makers and judicial officials to disentangle the complex definitions that have emerged in a post segregated society More specifically the capricious aim of post segregated educational settings leads to the confusing and often conflicting interchangeable usage of terms desegregated integrated and diversity This ambiguity is further confounded by the imprecise definitions of equity equality and opportunity The proposed book will examine the role of language post Brown v Board of Education and the effects of that language on educational policy and practice He also examines how the fundamental implications of language within post Brown court cases in pre through post secondary education demonstrate the unspecified outcomes for desegregation and integration while concomitantly demand an educational continuum of equitable distribution The arguments will further interrogate how education policy and practices implicitly contain a scholarly roadmap to forge equal opportunity and access fifty years after Brown
