Windeatt,1949 We just found out theres a plan to kill you blurted out one man among the little group of Christians as they stumbled into the house of Soul who later became known as Paul The murderers have been hired and the Damascus authorities have agreed to look the other way put in another breathlessly For a moment there was silence from Saul Well what are you going to do Whispered the visitors fearfully Saul thought joyfully of how Saint Stephen had been martyred for Christ But he knew that was not Gods will for him just yet Ill leave Damascus and escape to Jerusalem he answered Ill go after dark Will you help me But the watchmen will never let you pass the city gates Theyve all been bribed by you enemies Well bypass the city gates answered Saul calmly Just let me explain What did Saul have in mind Would it be dangerous And would it work This book tells what happened It also describes how Paul won victories over the Devil how he was mistaken for a god and how he faced court trials scourging imprisonment angry mobs and finally martyrdom for Christ In short this is the story of the many adventures in the life of the great Saint Paul the Apostle to the Gentiles

Paul David Visser,2014-02-17 In David D Visser s illuminating mediation Paul The Apostle to the Gentiles the author shares an in depth biography of Paul s life and why his role as an apostle differed from that of the other apostles Publisher s description on back cover

Paul as Apostle to the Gentiles Daniel Jong-Sang Chae,1997 Between Horror and Hope is a study of Paul s metaphorical language of death in Romans 6 1 11 The scholarly debate focuses on two main issues the origin of the commentatio mortis tradition and its development Dr Sabou argues that the origin of this terminology is original to Paul that it was the apostle s own insight into the meaning of Christ s death a death to sin and his understanding of the identity of Christ in his death as the anointed davidic king which guided him to create this metaphor of dying to sin as a way of describing the relationship of the believer with sin On the development of this language of death the author argues that this language conveys two aspects horror and hope The first is discussed in the context of crucifixion in which Paul explains the believer s death to sin by presenting Christ

s death as the death of the anointed davidic king who won the victory over sin and death by rising from the dead Paul affirms that believers are coalesced with what was proclaimed about Christ s death and resurrection thereby allowing him to assert that the releasing of the body from the power of sin is a result of crucifixion This crucifixion is the condemnation inflicted on our past lives in the age inaugurated by Adam s sin and this is such a horrible event that believers have to stay away from sin since sin leads to such punishment In contrast hope is presented in the context of burial The believers burial with Christ points to the fact that they are part of Christ s family and this is accomplished by the overwhelming action of God by which he pushes us toward the event of Christ s death an act pictured in baptism It is this burial with Christ that allows believers to share with Christ in newness of life I, Paul . . . Allienne R. Becker,2002-01-27 I Paul The Life of the Apostle to the Gentiles is the true and exciting story of Saul of Tarsus who encounters Christ on the road to Damascus and is transformed into Paul the fearless apostle who carries Christ across the Roman Empire and finally dies for his faith by the sword in Nero s Rome Although fictionalized to make the events come alive for the reader the story adheres to the Biblical narratives and Church tradition Paul of Tarsus: Apostle to the Gentiles ,
