De Young, Th.D., 2018-12-05 For years there has been uncertainty regarding Paul Young s The Shack Some have suspected heresy but have been unable to pin down exactly what Paul Young believed James De Young Th D who has known Paul Young for a couple decades wrote Burning Down the Shack to expose Christians to the fact that Paul Young espoused universalism Now the cat is out of the bag In his newest book Lies We Believe about God Young blatantly confesses adherence to universal reconciliation as well as twenty seven other beliefs that are heretical Here are some of Paul Young s unbiblical claims God is not in control of everything God submits to human beings God is a Christian God is a sexual being equally male and female People do not need to get saved Sin and hell do not separate people from God The cross was man s idea not God s People have a second chance to believe after death Everyone is a child of God Universal reconciliation has been accomplished for all people The God of evangelical faith tortured his child Jesus and is the perpetrator of evil Drawing upon his life long teaching of the Bible and the original languages James De Young appeals to the Bible to expose Paul Young as a heretic In appendices he also furnishes proof that Paul Young violates the Nicene Creed and the beliefs of the early church father Athanasius Finally we have a book written by one who is both personally and academically qualified to expose

Rauwerda,2014-01-10 What does Ian McEwan have in common with Barbara Kingsolver Or The Shack's William Paul Young with The Way the Crow Flies Ann Marie MacDonald All four spent significant portions of their formative years overseas as expatriates all four are third culture kids These authors share experiences of cultural and geographical displacement that fracture constructions of home and identity as their fiction attests This study surveys 17 authors with expat backgrounds to define third culture literature a burgeoning yet unrecognized branch of international writing characterized by expressions of dislocation loss and disenfranchisement By explicating how the shared cultural details of these writers emerge in literary themes and images this work introduces third culture literature as a separate field reinterpreting the work of major writers from across the globe

The Practical Steps to the Deeper Spiritual Life Larry Mehaffey,2012-01-23 In attempting to more effectively communicate the principles of spiritual life to those who sincerely desire a deeper reality in their walk with Christ I have discovered that most people appreciate practical and straightforward instructions and this is especially true when it involves the mystical nature of spiritual life Although spiritual life is not meritoriously attained through natural means or human effort there are several Practical Steps that can be taken to help facilitate the practice of spiritual disciplines The combination of these Practical Steps with the spiritual disciplines themselves will work to promote a dynamic life of faith that will effectively bring the believer into a productive and rewarding relationship with God Man is an intentional creation of divine wisdom explicitly designed to fulfill a sacred purpose Agape love requires a soul to empty the wealth of its humanity upon the altar of God as a willing sacrifice If determination is to live up to its potential in promoting the spiritual life it must be united with some very fundamental practical steps Heaven should not be a culture shock to the consciousness of the believer it should be a gradual final step into the glorious reality of a spiritual life whose progress began at conversion Divine pleasure must be the goal of human effort not divine favor The genuineness of what we actually believe is nowhere so obviously exposed as in our daily schedules It does not take overtly carnal acts to corrupt the days of a mans life for inattention and idleness produce the same result as evil actions or wicked intentions Liberty must always precede service if either are to be authentic It is our great love for the Father not our initial desire for salvation that motivates and liberates the sincere believer to live a life of chosen obedience to God
