Reforming Juvenile Detention Ira M. Schwartz, William H. Barton, 1994 Juvenile detention facilities confine more youths than do any other type of institution in the United States Essentially jails for juveniles who have been arrested and are awaiting trial these centers tend to be overcrowded inadequately staffed and expensive to operate Juvenile justice officials and state and local policymakers throughout the country are desperately trying to determine the proper use of these facilities and more important how to bring detention systems under control The eleven essays in this collection assess today's juvenile detention system bringing to light problems and inefficiencies and suggesting strategies for improving conditions and eliminating these problems The authors of these essays pull together data on national trends in detention policies and practices and examine specific cases to paint a grim picture of a system badly in need of reform They also provide practical summaries of reform targets and strategies and case studies of successful reform attempts thus offering clear and much needed guidance toward possible solutions to the nation's juvenile detention crisis Reforming the Broken Heart of Leadership Fred Meadows, 2013-06 Dynamic leaders are created from the inside out They are those individuals who have discovered that their identity as leaders are found in the integrity of being a child of the creator God rather than being shaped by their abilities performances and successes This book uncovers the underlying reality of why Christian leaders stray off the path of faithfully living out their calling Centered in the formative spirituality of Fr Adrian van Kaam Dr Fred Meadows links the many anomalies of leadership to what van Kaam labels as functionalism a self sufficient mode of operation initiated by internal pride that pushes us to define ourselves in terms of our accomplishments we are what we do Functionalism blocks our ability to see from a higher perspective and to experience transcendence By rediscovering the ancient practices of silence solitude meditation on the Word lectio divina journaling prayer and practicing community pastors ministry leaders and laity alike can begin the process of reforming broken leadership Acknowledging their souls as well as their abilities leaders are able to renew and reconnect with their calling and minister out of the overflow of God's presence while maintaining a healthy and dynamic inner life that fosters being conformed to the image and life of Jesus Christ

Reforming Philadelphia, 1682-2022 Richardson Dilworth, 2022-12-16 Uses Philadelphia as a case study to argue that political reform is a constant though not always dominant theme in city politics maintained through various interconnected social and professional networks Reforming Capitalism for the Common Good Whalen, Charles J., 2022-08-23 In this book of carefully selected essays Charles Whalen presents constructive analyses of vital economic problems confronting the United States since the 1970s giving special attention to challenges facing working families The analyses are grounded in Whalen's career of more than three decades during which he has gleaned insight from institutional and post Keynesian economics and contributed to national economic policy making equitable regional development and worker engagement in business decisions The result is a compelling case for reforming capitalism by addressing workers interests as an integral part of the common good and for reconstructing economics in the direction of post Keynesian institutionalism Reforming the Reform Susan L. Moffitt, Michaela Krug O'Neill, David K. Cohen, 2023-08-18 An expansive study of the problems encountered by educational leaders in pursuit of reform and how these issues cyclically translate into future topics of reform School reform is almost always born out of big dreams and well meaning desires to change the status quo But between lofty reform legislation and the students whose education is at stake there are numerous additional policies and policymakers who determine how reforms operate Even in the best cases school reform initiatives can perpetuate problems created by earlier reforms or existing injustices all while introducing new complications In Reforming the Reform political scientist Susan L Moffitt education policy scholar Michaela Krug O'Neill and the late policy and education scholar David K Cohen take on a wide ranging examination of the many intricacies of school reform With a particular focus on policymakers in the spaces between legislation and implementation such as the countless school superintendents and district leaders tasked with developing new policies in the unique context of their district or schools the authors identify common problems that arise when trying to operationalize ambitious reform ideas Their research draws on more than 250 interviews with administrators in Tennessee and California chosen as contrasts for their different political makeup and centralization of the education system and is presented here alongside survey data from across the United States as well as archival data to demonstrate how public schools shoulder enormous responsibilities for the American social safety net They provide a general explanation for problems facing social policy reforms in federalist systems including healthcare and offer pathways forward for education policy in particular

Reforming the Church before Modernity Christopher M. Bellitto, 2016-04-08 Reforming the Church before Modernity considers the question of ecclesial reform from late antiquity to the 17th century and tackles this complex question from primarily cultural perspectives rather than the more usual institutional approaches The common themes are social change centres and peripheries of change monasticism and intellectuals and their relationship to reform This innovative approach opens up the question of how religious reform took place and challenges existing ecclesiological models that remains too focussed on structures in a manner artificial for pre modern Europe Several chapters specifically take issue with the problem of what constitutes reform reformations and historians notions of the periodization of reform while in others the relationship between personal transformation and its broader social political or ecclesial context emerges as a significant dynamic Presenting essays from a distinguished international cast of scholars the book makes an important contribution to the debates over ecclesiology and religious reform stimulated by the anniversary of Vatican II

Choices in Reforming Public Service Employment C. Dell'Aringa,G. Della Rocca,B. Keller,Giuseppe Della Rocca,2001-09-25 Although many industrialized countries have had to face the same political and economic pressures in reforming their public sectors there have been different reactions and a diversity of solutions to the emerging problems This book examines the most significant initiatives targeted towards the restructuring of public sector employment relations in countries belonging to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development The contributors focus on national and local governments and health education and social services The first section provides an up to date analysis of six European countries The second part considers the USA Canada New Zealand Australia and Japan Anglican Re-Formation Jack A. Estes,2017-05-17 The Anglican Communion is at a crossroads A tipping point has been reached on the fulcrum where things can no longer be kept in balance A choice must be made between two competing worldviews which are at heart radically different The time has come to decide which set of beliefs and practices will be adhered to and taught in the church and which vision will be offered to the world as the Christian faith Are we sinners brought back into relationship with God through the atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ or are all made in the image of God and therefore inherently good Is Jesus Christ the only means of salvation or is salvation available through a plurality of religions that lead us to the knowledge of the divine presence within each person The time for re formation is at hand The calling of the Anglican reformers of the twenty first century goes beyond setting their own house in order The famous Via Media of Anglicanism brings it close to every other expression of the church A revived and restructured fellowship of Anglican Churches could readily become a model and a catalyst for the re formation of the various Christian fellowships worldwide Reforming Asian Socialism John

McMillan,Barry Naughton,1996 Examines the dramatic transformation of Asian communist countries China in particular to vigorous market economies Reforming Hollywood William D. Romanowski,2012-06-26 In Reforming Hollywood William Romanowski tells the long and complex story of the relationship between Protestants of all stripes from Episcopalians to evangelicals and the American film industry Drawing on personal interviews and previously unexamined primary sources he chronicles Protestant efforts to exert influence on the industry and use movies to promote the moral health of the nation At the same time Romanowski shows mainline Protestants were surprisingly averse to censorship which they saw as intruding upon individual conscience and antithetical to American democracy of which they saw themselves as the guardians

Always Reforming Craig D. Atwood,2001 Always Reforming highlights the fact that in the modern era the notion of heresy has fallen apart Every church has been declared heretical at some time or other by another church and it is not the role of the historian to decide who is right or wrong on doctrinal issues Christians have adapted to sweeping social changes including scientific discoveries and changing world views This volume attempts to uncover some of the hidden dynamics of faith within the many ways in which other Christians have tried to live out the gospel in an uncertain world It also demonstrates that all human institutions including churches change over time Jacket
