World Bank Anne C. M. Salda,1995 The Paradox of Africa's Poverty Tirfe Mammo,1999 Taking Ethiopia as a case study this work examines the prevailing views on the poverty of much of Africa and argues that the current situation can be reversed by attacking the root causes of poverty once they are properly understood Africa's Management in the 1990s and Beyond Mamadou Dia,1996 In 1992 the World Bank launched the Africa's Management in the 1990s research program a comprehensive study of the issues of institutional capacity building in Sub Saharan Africa and its effects on economic and social development This report focuses on the program and on how to implement its main message institutions must be both rooted in the local context and culture and open to outside challenges and influences Chapters focus on the institutional aspects of capacity building best practices in public administration indigenous private sector development and a framework for reconciliation between institutions Governance Capacity and Economic Reform in Developing Countries Leila L. Frischtak,1994-01-01 The inability to coordinate diverging interests and to promote policies that represent the public interest is one of many non economic obstacles to economic reform This paper examines the relationship between governance capacity and economic reform The Food Security Policy in Africa Between Disaster Relief and Structural Adjustment Gabriele Geier,2014-04-08 According to the FAO one person in three in sub Saharan Africa suffers from malnutrition and one in seven is in danger of dying Most African countries no longer seem capable of ensuring that their people have access to sufficient food Given the failure of past efforts the objectives of food security policies and their effectiveness have to be reconsidered This book shows that the debate on food security policies has changed with the passage of time The entitlement debate triggered by A Sen had a major influence on this change but the bearing of socio economic structures on the food security of African households and their individual members are still not fully recognised Institutional Development Ronald McGill,2016-07-27 This book reviews the theoretical perspectives on institutional development ID and third world city management It considers the practice of ID in city management by reviewing two related cases on organizational strengthening and building a planning capability both in local government The synthesizing chapters offer some guidelines on and tests for ID in city management practice The book therefore seeks to identify some general principles to guide the ID process in relation to third world city management Sociology, Anthropology, and Development Michael M. Cernea, April L. Adams,1994-01-01 Environmentally Sustainable Development Studies and Monograph Series No 3 A listing of works published by World Bank sociologists and anthropologists this bibliography serves as a vehicle for exchanging experiences and promoting interdisciplinary Opportunities for private sector participation in agricultural water development and management F. W. T. Penning de Vries,H. Sally,A. Inocencio,2005 This study examines ways to increase food security reduce poverty and achieve economic growth in sub Saharan Africa with water through increased participation of the private sector and publicprivatepartnerships This report is a summary of the findings from a review of the literature and critical analysis thereof The private sector includes all farmers farm households and agriculture based micro small and medium enterprises MSMEs That is all entities involved in crop livestock and fish production and marketing in post harvest activities and food processing and in supply chains for the goods services and information used in the process The study examines different types of agricultural water development and management These include smallholder subsistence farming cultivation of profit oriented high value crops and peri urban agriculture as well as successful examples of private sector involvement in various functions or processes including planning design construction operations and maintenance The spotlight on water does not imply that other factors such as off farm employment market development and education are unimportant

Development Anthropology Riall W Nolan, 2018-02-06 Students will really appreciate this book It has a rare combination of humor clarity exceptional writing and above all a precision in outlining skills and knowledge for practice As a professional I learned much that will be useful to me Alexander M Ervin University of Saskatchewan At last a textbook on development anthropology that is comprehensive clearly written and up to date Nolan provides an exceptionally useful framework for analyzing development projects carefully illustrated with mini case studies Linda Stone Washington State University Nolan's book should be a backpack staple for the practitioner of grassroots development Jan Knippers Black Monterey Institute of International Studies Development Anthropology is a detailed examination of anthropology's many uses in international development projects Written from a practitioner's standpoint and containing numerous examples and case studies the book provides students with a comprehensive overview of what development anthropologists do how they do it and what problems they encounter in their work The book outlines the evolution of both applied anthropology and international development and their involvement with each other throughout the latter half of the twentieth century It focuses on how development projects work and how anthropology is used in project design implementation and evaluation The final section of the book considers how both development and anthropology must change in order to become more effective An appendix provides practical advice to students considering a career in development anthropology

Governance and Economy Deborah Brautigam, 1991 An exploration of the links between development and governance that is between development and accountability including institutional pluralism and participation openness including problems such as corruption that result at least partly from lack of openness and predictability or the rule of law

Managing Policy Reform Derick W. Brinkerhoff, Benjamin Crosby, 2002 A toolbox for designing managing and influencing policy reform in government and civil society Based on experience in over 40 countries This comprehensive book provides concepts and tools to navigate the how of policy change in order to enhance democratic governance It teaches decision makers how to implement policy more effectively and increase performance feasibility of these reforms The research part of the USAID Implementing Policy Change Project stems from work with government officials private sector entrepreneurs and civil society groups from regional to national and local levels in over 40 countries The book includes dynamic tools for

Contending Issues in African Development

Obioma M. Iheduru,2001-02-28 Taking a forward looking approach this book critically examines the issues and dynamics central to Africa s problematic development and situates these issues within the contents unique cultural political economic and social milieu Moving away from a simple litany of problems bedeviling Africa s economy the book is the culmination of several scholars efforts to identify specific causative factors Each chapter delineates a specific issue demonstrates the role it plays in overall development and speculates on probable ways to meet the challenges it poses The major conceptual and epistemological constructs considered include the tamed African State social capacity management of change reconceptualized gender roles and economic integration Although the contributors various approaches diverge and disagree the epistemological variations contribute cumulatively to an understanding of the issues at the root of Africa s slow pace of development While traversing the spectrum of issues that affect development the book uniquely points out that the management of change is pivotal to fostering development The authors efforts provide a useful base for future research and help to chart a course of action leading to success in the 21st century Corruption, Politics and Development H. Marquette, 2003-11-04 In 1997 the World Bank announced a strategy to help its borrowers combat corruption despite earlier claims that work of this kind violated the Bank's non political mandate Despite many attempts to reshape corruption as an economic issue rather than a political one the non political mandate has never been satisfactorily addressed Heather Marquette argues that the Bank should focus in its strengths and avoid the more controversial components of its anti corruption programme which threaten its credibility Understanding Global Cooperation ,2021-07-26 The journal Global Governance A Review of Multilateralism was founded in 1995 and has since offered policy relevant and theoretically advanced articles aimed at both academic and practitioner audiences This collection presents some of the most significant pieces published in the journal addressing topics ranging from human rights and peacekeeping to trade and development often examining the evolution of the institutional arrangements themselves Authors include senior UN officials prominent scholars and other careful students of international organization By presenting these twenty five articles one from each year since the journal's founding in one volume with an Introduction by the two editors Kurt Mills and Kendall Stiles we hope that the reader will be able to better appreciate the evolution of both global institutions and our thinking about them Contributors include Kurt Mills Kendall Stiles James N Rosenau Inis L Claude Jr David Held Kofi Annan Ngairé Woods Craig Warkentin Karen Mingst John Gerard Ruggie Peter M Haas Mats Berdal Jessica Tuchman Mathews Rosemary Foot Michele M Betsill Harriet Bulkeley Michael Barnett Hunjoon Kim Madalene O'Donnell Laura Sitea Claudia Pahl Wostl Joyeeta Gupta Daniel Petry Roger A Coate Andrea Birdsall Gilles Carbonnier Fritz Brugger Jana Krause Paul D Williams Alex J Bellamy John Karlsrud Kathryn Sikkink Mateja Peter Gregory T Chin Matthew D Stephen Kjelvig Egeland Caroline Fehl and Johannes Thimm
