Unique, exciting and at times hilariously shocking, key features include unprecedented coverage of World English with equal prominence given to American and British English slang and entries included from Australia, New Zealand, Canada, India, South Africa, Ireland and the Caribbean; emphasis on post World War II slang and unconventional English; published sources given for each entry, often including an early or significant example of the term's use in print; hundreds of thousands of citations from popular literature, newspapers, magazines, movies and songs illustrating usage of the headwords; dating information for each headword in the tradition of Partridge commentary on the term's origins and meaning. New to this edition: A new preface noting slang trends of the last five years; Over 1,000 new entries from the US, UK and Australia; New terms from the language of social networking. Many entries now revised to include new dating, new citations from written sources and new glosses. The New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English is a spectacular resource infused with humour and learning; it's rude, it's delightful and it's a prize for anyone with a love of language.

Milman PhD,2024-04-21 In Forensics III They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died I reviewed twenty eight ordinary people who were thrust into the spotlight gaining fame not for their talents or accomplishments while living but for the way they died Newspaper and magazine articles ensured that stories of the circumstances surrounding their deaths remained in the public eye so that as Andy Warhol had predicted their fame would last at least fifteen minutes In some cases it lasted much longer While these individuals may have been ordinary before they died they became extraordinary after death Some of the people I reviewed in Forensics III They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died include the Boy in the Box later identified as Joseph Zarelli who died from blunt force trauma Azaria Chamberlain a nine week old infant who was killed by a dingo at Ayers Rock in Australia George Floyd whose death resulted from police brutality Ron Goldman and Nicole Brown Simpson who were stabbed to death Elisa Lam who drowned in a water tank on the roof of her hotel Michael Faherty whose death in Ireland was attributed to spontaneous human combustion Katherine Morris who died from carbon monoxide poisoning due to charcoal grilling in an automobile Carlos Sousa who was mauled to death by a tiger Sahel Kazemi and Steve McNair who committed murder suicide and Jayne and Corinne Peters whose death was due to filicide suicide among many others Forensics III They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died reads like a mystery novel presenting biographical and scientific information that helps readers understand how medical examiners and coroners utilized forensic analysis to determine the causes and manners of death of twenty eight not so famous people

Fallon,2022-09-08 Since the US presidential election of 2016 the words propaganda and fake news have been prominent in American political and cultural discourse Yet very few people can provide a coherent explanation of what they mean precisely when using them On the two sides of the political spectrum red and blue each points out messages from the other side that they think are untrue or that they simply don't like Unlike our dangerously biased political system however reality has more than only two
