Bowling Green Since 1950 Amy Hughes Wood, Portia Beck Pennington, 2010 The last 50 years of the millennium brought changes no oracle could have foreseen In 1950 most families did not own a television set many did not own a car and most women did not drive Segregation was practiced throughout the country while Americans lived in the shadows of the cold war and nuclear proliferation Bowling Green in 1950 was a microcosm of America at large Ladies wore hats and gloves men wore hats and ties Businesses prospered and failed schools were built and students were graduated political issues were debated and churches were erected Bowling Green was Our Town U S A

The Wilderness Family Kobie Kruger, 2014-11-28 When Kobie Kruger her game ranger husband and their three young daughters moved to one of the most isolated corners of the world a remote ranger station in the Mahlangeni region of South Africa s vast Kruger National Park she might have worried that she would become engulfed with loneliness and boredom Yet for Kobie and her family the seventeen years spent in this spectacularly beautiful park proved to be the most magical and occasionally the most hair raising of their lives Kobie recounts their enchanting adventures and extraordinary experiences in this vast reserve a place where bathed in golden sunlight hippos basked in the glittering waters of the Letaba River storks and herons perched along the shoreline and fruit bats hung in the sausage trees But as the Krugers settled in they discovered that not all was peace and harmony They soon became accustomed to living with the unexpected the sneaky hyenas who stole blankets and cooking pots the sinister looking pythons that slithered into the house and the usually placid elephants who grew foul tempered in the violent heat of the summer And one terrible day a lion attacked Kobus in the bush and nearly killed him Yet nothing prepared the Krugers for their greatest adventure of all the raising of an orphaned prince a lion cub who when they found him was only a few days old and on the verge of death Reared on a cocktail of love and bottles of fat enriched milk Leo soon became an affectionate rambunctious and adored member of the family It is the rearing of this young king and the hilarious endeavours to teach him to become a real lion who could survive with his own kind in the wild that lie at the heart of this endearing memoir It is a memoir of a magical place and time that can never be recaptured

Trauma To Healing Mickey R. Craig,2017-12-29 Every one of us has a story to tell In that respect my story is not much different from anyone else s story Since the beginning of human life drawn from Genesis in The Life Recovery Bible even Adam and Eve had their own story In many ways our stories align with their story in that all earthy human beings experience birth a path to walk in life and eventually physical death On that path some choose and others don t to search for true meaning in life Life holds personal experiences for everyone and the path in which each of us follows is constantly evolving The Bible says And you will know the truth and the truth will set you free John 8 32 NIV My journey has led me to seek that path of Truth which to me is in living a life in Christ Jesus
