Mao Against Khrushchev David Floyd, 1964      Mao Against Khrushchev David Floyd, 1963      Contending with Contradictions Mercy Kuo, 2001-01-01 A long overdue contribution to the study of Cold War history and Chinese foreign policy Contending with Contradictions provides an incisive interpretation of China's relations with Poland and its irreversible impact on the communist world Mercy A Kuo provides a unique contribution to the miniscule corpus of literature on the subject Her approach is threefold Kuo offers a comprehensive interpretation of the historical relevance of the PRC's policy towards Soviet Eastern Europe during this era she sheds new light on the intentions of the Chinese Communist Party and finally her research for the book was based on an archival approach utilizing post 1989 declassified sources Because this area of Cold War history has long been understudied and certainly without the benefit of newly available archival materials Kuo's study is the first of its kind      Mao's China and the Sino-Soviet Split Mingjiang Li, 2013-03-01 The Sino Soviet split in the 1960s was one of the most significant events of the Cold War Why did the Sino Soviet alliance hailed by its creators as unbreakable eternal and as representing brotherly solidarity break up Why did their relations eventually evolve into open hostility and military confrontation With the publication of several works on the subject in the past decade we are now in a better position to understand and explain the origins of the Sino Soviet split But at the same time new questions and puzzles have also emerged The scholarly debate on this issue is still fierce This book the result of extensive research on declassified documents at the Chinese Foreign Ministry and on numerous other new Chinese materials sheds new light on the problem and makes a significant contribution to the debate More than simply an empirical case study by theorising the concept of the ideological dilemma Mingjiang Li's book attempts to address the relationship between ideology and foreign policy and discusses such pressing questions as why it is that an ideology can sometimes effectively dictate foreign policy whilst at other times exercises almost no significant influence at all This book will be of essential reading to anyone interested in Chinese Soviet history Cold War history International Relations and the theory of ideology      Mao's Third Front Covell F. Subcommittee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and Other Internal Security Laws,1970      A Short History of Sino-Soviet Relations, 1917-1991 Zhihua Shen,2019-10-31 Drawing on the rich trove of recently declassified Russian and Chinese archival materials this history of Sino Soviet relations in the 20th century sheds new light on key events during this period It offers fresh insights into the role of ideology and national interests in the evolution of the complex and turbulent relationship between not just the two countries but also their respective Communist Parties The chapters on the normalization of bilateral ties provide an in depth analysis of divisions in the socialist camp that culminated in both its collapse and the disintegration of the Soviet Union The book argues that 20th century Sino Soviet relations reflected both long standing and emerging political and geopolitical challenges facing members of the Cold War socialist camp in particular tensions between the ideal of internationalism and national aspirations between commitment to the principle of sovereignty and commitment to that of equality in international relations and between inter party relations and inter state relations This makes for a valuable addition to the reading lists of all those interested in the development of the relationship between two of the world s most important countries      New East-bloc Evidence on the Cold War in the Third World and the Collapse of Détente in the 1970s ,1996      Geo-Politics in Northeast Asia Akihiro Iwashita,Yong-Chool Ha,Edward Boyle,2022-08-03 Geo Politics in Northeast Asia focuses on the dynamics of Northeast Asia as a region The chapters in this book offer a nuanced approach for understanding the geo politics of this strategically critical area of the world Focusing on China Japan Russia and the Koreas as well as the involvement of the United States the contributors to the volume offer a timely and critical analysis of Northeast Asia They collectively emphasize the different scales at which the region holds significance and particularly note how the region is often granted significance by local political forces as well as national interests Borderlands and sub regions are especially important in this perspective and the contributors show both how regionalism influences the people living in these areas and how they in turn shape the political priorities of states At the same time the worsening of relations between Japan and the Koreans and the increasing assertiveness of both China and Russia make it essential to understand the dynamics of the region as well as how they have changed during and following the Trump era Geo Politics in Northeast Asia is essential reading for students and scholars of Political Geography International Relations and Strategic Studies as well as for those with a research focus on Northeast Asia or the wider Asia Pacific and Indo Pacific regions Press and Publications Summary United States Information Service (Taipei, Taiwan),1964-04 Mao's Great Famine Frank Dikötter,2010-10-01 Winner of the Samuel Johnson Prize An unprecedented groundbreaking history of China's Great Famine that recasts the era of Mao Zedong and the history of the People's Republic of China Between 1958 and 1962 China descended into hell Mao Zedong threw his country into a frenzy with the Great Leap Forward an attempt to catch up to and overtake Britain in less than 15 years The experiment ended in the greatest catastrophe the country had ever known destroying tens of millions of lives So opens Frank Dikötter's riveting magnificently detailed chronicle of an era in Chinese history much speculated about but never before fully documented because access to Communist Party archives has long been restricted to all but the most trusted historians A new archive law has opened up thousands of central and provincial documents that fundamentally change the way one can study the Maoist era Dikötter makes clear as nobody has before that far from being the program that would lift the country among the world's superpowers and prove the power of Communism as Mao imagined the Great Leap Forward transformed the country in the other direction It became the site not only of one of the most deadly mass killings of human history at least 45 million people were worked starved or beaten to death but also of the greatest demolition of real estate in human history as up to one third of all housing was turned into rubble The experiment was a catastrophe for the natural world as well as the land was savaged in the maniacal pursuit of steel and other industrial accomplishments In a powerful mesgning of exhaustive research in Chinese archives and narrative drive Dikötter for the first time links up what happened in the corridors of power the vicious backstabbing and bullying tactics that took place among party leaders with the everyday experiences of ordinary people giving voice to the dead and disenfranchised His magisterial account recasts the history of the People's Republic of China
