Fundamentals of Cartography (Second

Revised and Enlarged Edition) R.P. Misra,2014-01-01 The first edition of Fundamentals of Cartography was published in 1969 by Prasara University of Mysore It was reprinted by the Concept Publishing Company New Delhi in While the book remained in currency the cartographic processes changed drastically when information technology brought a sea of change in the sources of information drafting of maps and printing processes Drawing maps by hand became obsolete surveying whether ground or aerial was no longer the only major source of information In view of these changes it became necessary to bring out a new edition Realising that unless one knows directions scales projections coordinates ground and air surveys one would fail to understand the proper use of modern information technology in the drawing the maps Thus the contents of 1969 edition are retained and new chapters have been added to update the book In Part II of the book a chapter on Remote Sensing and Satellite Imageries has been added and Part V contains chapters on Computer Aided Cartography Geographic Information System GIS Land Information System LIS and Global Positioning System GPS Maxwell's Handbook for AACR2 Robert L. Maxwell,2004-05-24 For application of the most current Anglo American Cataloguing Rules there is but one standard Maxwell s Handbook for AACR2 This practical and authoritative cataloging how to now in its Fourth Edition has been completely revised inclusive of the 2003 update to AACR2 Designed to interpret and explain AACR2 Maxwell illustrates and applies the latest cataloging rules to the MARC record for every type of information format Focusing on the concept of integrating resources where relevant information may be available in different formats the revised edition also addresses the Program for Cooperative Cataloging PCC and the cataloging needs of electronic books and digital reproductions of physical items such as booksand maps From books and pamphlets to sound recordings music manuscripts maps and more this is the most comprehensive and straightforward guide to interpreting and applying standard cataloging rules Learn How and when to apply the rules What has changed in MARC21 coding How the rules help organize descriptive and bibliographic information What are uniform titles for unusual formats or materials How to select access points Extensive updates have resulted in all new chapters covering cartographic materials electronic resources and continuing resources formerly called serials Illustrated with over 490 figures showing actual MARC catalog records this is the must have AACR2 guide for catalogers LIS students and cataloging instructors International Dictionary of Library Histories David H. Stam,2001-11-01 Following the format of Fitzroy Dearborn s highly successful International Dictionary of Historic Places and International Dictionary of University Histories the International Dictionary of Library Histories provides basic information for each institution location and holdings followed by an extensive 1 000 5 000 word essay on its history as well as a Further Reading list In addition the dictionary includes introductory articles on the history of various types of libraries and a library history in various regions of the world The dictionary profiles more than 200 institutions from around the world including the world s most important research libraries and other libraries with globally or regionally notable collections innovative traditions and significant and interesting histories The essays take advantage of the growing scholarship of library history to
