The Black Directive N.D. Mellen, 2015-01-09 I m no hero no matter what people say After all you can t be a hero if you despise those that you re protecting The way that I look at it what I am is a matter of circumstance I gave up dresses and skirts the day I watched my parents die I was eight years old and was mauled and scarred by the creature that killed them If it hadn t been for the intervention of a half insane blacksmith I would have perished beside them I survived but was infected by the Blackness My face was tattooed when I was sixteen to hide my scars and I started training under the brutal tutelage of one of the most skilled killers to ever walk the Outer Rims shortly thereafter He battered me for years teaching me how to kill as quickly and efficiently as possible Not people mind you No we trained to kill Ferals the white skinned black eyed monsters that killed my parents and so many others There are still a few who object to what my pack and I do They think that since Ferals used to be human we owe them some sort of sympathy I don t think that deeply into it I just kill them and when the Blackness is roaring through me and I have my spear in my hand I m really good at it I know all the old wives tales about princes and princesses everyone has a happily ever after But this is my story and there s nothing happy or beautiful about it You can call me Maqui and it s an understatement to say that I have staggering anger issues

Rethinking Genre in Contemporary Global Cinema Silvia Dibeltulo, Ciara Barrett, 2018-08-02 Rethinking Genre in Contemporary Global Cinema offers a unique wide ranging exploration of the intersection between traditional modes of film production and new transitional transnational approaches to film genre and related discourses in a contemporary global context This volume's content the films genres and movements explored as well as methodologies used in their analysis is diverse and crucially up to date with contemporary film making practice and theory Significantly the collection extends existing scholarly discourse on film genre beyond its historical bias towards a predominant focus on Hollywood cinema on the one hand and a tendency to treat other national cinemas in isolation and or as distinct systems of production on the other In view of the ever increasing globalisation and transnational mediation of film texts and screen media and culture worldwide the book recognises the need for film genre studies and film genre criticism to cast a broader indeed global scope The collection thus rethinks genre cinema as a transitional cross cultural and increasingly transnational global paradigm of film making in diverse contexts
