Carman served as a colonel of the 13th New Jersey Infantry After the horrific fighting of September 17, 1862, he recorded in his diary that he was preparing a good map of the Antietam battle and a full account of the action Unbeknownst to the young officer the project would become the most significant work of his life Appointed as the Historical Expert to the Antietam Battlefield Board in 1894 Carman solicited accounts from hundreds of veterans scoured through thousands of letters and maps and assimilated the material into the hundreds of cast iron tablets that still mark the field today Carman also wrote an 1,800 page manuscript on the campaign Although it remained unpublished for more than a century many historians and students of the war consider it to be the best overall treatment of the campaign ever written Dr Thomas G. Clemens recognized internationally as one of the foremost historians of the Maryland Campaign has spent more than two decades studying Antietam and editing and richly annotating Carman's exhaustively written manuscript The result is The Maryland Campaign of September 1862 Carman's magisterial account published for the first time in two volumes Jammed with firsthand accounts personal anecdotes maps photos a biographical dictionary and a database of veterans accounts of the fighting this long awaited study will be read and appreciated as battle history at its finest *G.
