Lincoln, the War President G. S. Boritt,1992 Collection of essays on how Lincoln confronted the central issues of the Civil War era The Hero's Farewell Jeffrey Sonnenfeld,1991 The Marxist prediction that capitalist bureaucracy must inevitably neutralise individualistic leadership in industry has been disproved over and over by the careers of industrial superstars from Andrew Carnegie to Henry Ford Lee Iacocca Estee Lauder and David Rockefeller all of whom could be described as having made their own personal stamp on their respective businesses Arguing that personality can also affect the departure styles of retiring CEOs Sonnenfeld defines four principle types Monarchs Generals Ambassadors and Governors The personality of each type is outlined in interviews with real life business leaders and illustrated with numerous pithy anecdotes making The Hero's Farewell both a well researched and an entertaining read Subject Catalog, 1976 Library of Congress,1976 National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases Inside War Michael Fellman,1990-04-19 During the Civil War the state of Missouri witnessed the most widespread prolonged and destructive guerrilla fighting in American history With its horrific combination of robbery arson torture murder and swift and bloody raids on farms and settlements the conflict approached total war engulfing the whole populace and challenging any notion of civility Michael Fellman's Inside War captures the conflict from inside drawing on a wealth of first hand evidence including letters diaries military reports court martial transcripts depositions and newspaper accounts He gives us a clear picture of the ideological social and economic forces that divided the people and launched the conflict Along with depicting how both Confederate and Union officials used the guerrilla fighters and their tactics to their own advantage Fellman describes how ordinary civilian men and women struggled to survive amidst the random terror perpetuated by both sides what drove the combatants themselves to commit atrocities and vicious acts of vengeance and how the legend of Jesse James arose from this brutal episode in the American Civil War John L. Sheen, Norman Vincent Peale, and Billy Graham in the Age of Extremes](#) Timothy H. Sherwood,2013-08-15 Fulton J Sheen Norman Vincent Peale and Billy Graham were America's most popular religious leaders during the mid twentieth century period known as the golden years of the Age of Extremes It was part of an era that encompassed polemic contrasts of good and evil on the world stage in political philosophies and international relations The 1950s and early 1960s in particular were years of high anxiety competing ideologies and hero villain mania in America Sheen was the voice of reason who spoke against those conflicting ideologies which were hostile to religious faith and democracy Peale preached the gospel of reassurance self assurance and success despite ominous global threats and Graham was the heroic model of faith whose message of conversion provided Americans an identity and direction opposite to atheistic communism This study looks at how and why their rhetorical leadership both separately and together contributed to the climate of an extreme era and influenced a national religious revival Books and Pamphlets,
