Hans Christian Andersen Johan de Mylius, Aage Jørgensen, Viggo Hjørnager Pedersen, 2007 On the occasion of Hans Christian Andersen's bicentenary in 2005 a conference was held in Odense Denmark The chosen conference theme was Hans Christian Andersen between Children's Literature and Adult Literature At previous conferences focus had been exclusively on Andersen as poet and writer for adults in which capacity he wrote novels theatre plays poems and travel books But faced with the world wide celebration in 2005 it seemed proper to include the child aspects of his works in the scholarly discussion In its wide range of themes dealing with both adult and child aspects of Andersen s texts this volume consisting of papers presented at the Odense conference does justice to the whole of Andersen whose immortal genius has a message for young and old all over the world Fairy Tales from Before Fairy Tales Jan M. This volume assembles a wide range of scholars and critical methodologies to suggest multiple interpretations of the vital connection linking literary imagination and the human experience of reality. In varying ways and with varying intent, it speaks to the essential experience of participating in imaginative worlds, offering different accounts of how language signifies in real and imaginary contexts and why people read and write rival realities. Taking as point of departure Aristotle's definition of poesis, it questions how literature stands in both mimetic and transformative relation to the givens of history, reworking them within the order of imagination and desire. Through historical linguistic and literary analysis of texts spanning nine centuries, it demonstrates how, though it is irreducible to reality, literary imagination conveys something very real about the human response to the world, including the knowledge and power proper to such experience. Neither history nor literature discloses a reality purged of extraneous detail; making what is essential to human experience more concentrated and dramatic. Thus made apparent is that literature and history do not exclude each other but inform, correct, and supplement each other, underscoring the complexities of thought and imagination. Off with Their Heads! Maria Tatar, 2020-06-30. When Hansel and Gretel try to eat the witch's gingerbread house in the woods, are they indulging their uncontrolled cravings and destructive desires, or are they simply responding normally to the hunger pangs they feel after being abandoned by their parents? Challenging Bruno Bettelheim and other critics who read fairy tales as enactments of children's untamed urges, Maria Tatar argues that it is time to stop casting the children as villains. In this provocative book, she explores how adults mistreat children, focusing on adults, not only as hostile characters in fairy tales themselves but also as real people who use frightening stories to discipline young listeners.
