Deleuze and Film Teresa Rizzo, 2012-04-26 In the first book length introduction to Deleuze s work on film from a feminist perspective Teresa Rizzo ranges across Deleuze s books on Cinema his other writings and feminist re workings of his philosophy to re think the film viewing experience More than a commentary on Deleuze s books on Cinema Rizzo s work addresses a significant gap in film theory building a bridge between the spectatorship studies and apparatus theories of the 1970s and new theorisations of the cinematic experience Developing a concept of a cinematic assemblage the book focuses on affective and intensive connections between film and viewer Through a careful analysis of a range of film texts and genres that have been important to feminist film scholarship such as the Alien series and the modern horror film Rizzo puts Deleuze s key concepts to work in exciting new ways

The US Sports Film: A Genre of American Dream Time Danny Gronmaier, 2022-12-05 Sports and film are media that create time They are temporal not only in the sense that they are defined and regulated by certain temporalities as a result of processes of social negotiation but also in the sense of modulating and intervening in these processes in the first place They are determined by multiple temporalities referring to and aligning along perceptual corporeality but at the same time they also produce time through and along temporalities of bodily expression and perception Thus as much as we perceive and understand sports and film by means of our culturally coded conceptions of time this comprehension is itself already the product of these media s fabrication and modulation of certain audiovisual imaginations of time This book examines these imaginations with regard to US team sports feature films understanding the former as the latter s constitutive conflict which makes these films graspable as a genre in the first place By addressing temporality as an ever new crystallization of a heroic past and an unattainable future in a saturated yet volatile present this conflict connects substantially to the American Dream as an idea of community building historicity Departing from a non taxonomic approach in genre theory and such philosophical recognition of the American Dream as less an ideological narrative but more a social and socially effective imaginary embedded in an audiovisual discourse of time this book demonstrates the interrelation of sports cinema and American subjectivization along close readings of the poetics of affect of five exemplary sports films FIELD OF DREAMS WE

 Nicholas Chare, 2015-03-17 Sportswomen in Cinema considers both documentary and fiction films from a variety of periods and cultures by directors including Kathryn Bigelow Gurinder Chadha Im Soon rye George Kukor Ida Lupino and Leni Riefenstahl Drawing from psychoanalytic and phenomenological theories the book presents a series of landmark close readings of films featuring a variety of different forms of athletic activity including baseball basketball bodybuilding boxing climbing football rollerderby surfing tennis and track and field In focusing on themes such as gesture screen space and sound it moves beyond a purely narrative analysis of sports films What s more as well as building on existing scholarship in sports studies to argue that sport should always be conceived of as more than simply competitive the book also contributes to ongoing efforts in film theory to foster new feminist discourses on sexual difference The ideas of thinkers such as Judith Butler Bracha Ettinger Griselda Pollock and Michel Serres are employed to explore how films featuring female athletes reflect changing perspectives on femininity and sexuality and also potentially contribute to transforming our perceptions about sportswomen and cinema Sportswomen in Cinema is an important addition to the literature of film studies gender studies and sports studies Film, Theory and Philosophy Felicity Colman, 2014-12-05 Philosophy and in particular continental philosophy has provided a conceptual underpinning for cinema since its beginnings especially in the development of cinematic aesthetics In its turn film has rethought the abstractions of space and time and the categories of sex and gender and has created new concepts which illuminate phenomenology metaphysics and epistemology Film and Philosophy brings together leading scholars to provide a detailed overview of the key thinkers who have shaped the field of film philosophy The thinkers include continental and post continental philosophers analytic philosophers film makers film reviewers sociologists and cultural theorists The essays reveal how philosophy can be applied to film analysis and how film can be used to illustrate philosophical problems But more importantly the essays explore how film has shaped what philosophy thinks and how philosophy has lead to a reappraisal of film The book will prove an invaluable reference and guide to readers interested in a deeper understanding of the issues and insights presented by film philosophy Film and Philosophy includes essays on Hugo Munsterberg Vilem Flusser Siegfried Kracauer Theodor Adorno Antonin Artaud Henri Bergson Maurice Merleau Ponty Emmanuel Levinas Andre Bazin Roland Barthes Serge Daney Jean Luc Godard Stanley Cavell Jean Luc Nancy Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Sarah Kofman Paul Virilio Jean Baudrillard Jean Francois Lyotard Fredric Jameson Felix Guattari Raymond Bellour Christian Metz Julia Kristeva Laura Mulvey Homi Bhabha Slavoj Zizek Stephen Heath Alain Badiou Jacques Ranciere Leo Bersani Giorgio Agamben and Michel Chion "Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956?971 " Rosemary O'Neill, 2017-07-05 The Riviera in the 1950s and 1960s was culturally rich with modernist icons such as Matisse and Picasso in residence but also a burgeoning tourist culture that established the C d Azur as a center of indigenous artists associated with Nouveau R isme Fluxus and Supports Surfaces emerged under the mantle of the Ecole de Nice Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications generated during the period from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives this study integrates material published in monographic studies of individuals and art movements to offer the first in depth study of this important movement in twentieth century art The author situates the work of the Ecole de Nice within the broader social currents that are so important in contextualizing this phenomenon within this internal region of France and underscores why this work was so significant at this historical moment within the context of the broader European art scene and contemporary American art with which it shared affinities Despite their stylistic differences and associations with groups that are generally considered distinct O'Neill discloses that these artists shared conceptual affinities theatrical modes of presentation based on appropriation use of the ready made and a determination to counter style driven painting associated with the postwar Ecole de Paris Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956-1971 suggests that the emergence of an Ecole de Nice internally eroded the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and that these artists fostered a model of aesthetic pluralism that remained locally distinct yet fully engaged with international vanguard trends of the 1960s

Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 Rosemary O'Neill, 2012 Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956-1971 offers the first in depth study of the Ecole de Nice The author shows how artists indigenous to the region challenged the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and growing internationalism in the arts

Musical Encounters with Deleuze and Guattari Pirkko Moisala, Taru Leppänen, Milla Tiainen, Hanna Väättäinen, 2017-01-12 This is the first volume to mobilize encounters between the work of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari and the rich developments in cultural studies of music and sound The book takes seriously the intellectual and political challenge that the process philosophy of Deleuze and Guattari poses for previous understandings of music as permanent objects and primarily discursive texts By elaborating on the concepts of Deleuze and Guattari in innovative ways the chapters of the book demonstrate how musical and sonic practices and expressions can be reconsidered as instances of becoming actors in assemblages and actualizations of virtual tendencies The collection pushes notions of music and sound beyond such long term paradigms as identity thinking the privileging of signification and the centrality of the human subject The chapters of the volume bring a range of new topics and methodological approaches in contact with Deleuze and Guattari These span from movement improvisation jazz and western art music studies sound and performance art and reality TV talent shows to deaf musicians and indigenous music The book also highlights such fresh ways of doing analysis and shaping the methodological tools of music and sound studies that are enabled by Deleuze and Guattari's philosophy Their philosophy too gains renewed capacities and potential when responding to ethnographic cultural ethnomusicological participatory aesthetic new materialist feminist and queer perspectives to music and sound
