The Importance of How We See Ourselves Marina A.L. Oshana, 2010-09-28 The past fifteen years have seen a wellspring of interest in the concept and practical nature of the self Questions about the metaphysics of personal identity have preoccupied philosophical scholarship Less attention has been paid to the topic of the self from the first person standpoint the point of view of a person who regards certain phenomena as distinctive of and essential to her identity Nor has much attention been paid to how this concept of the self is related to responsible agency This book argues that a person's self conception affects her status as a responsible agent 1 The book develops a hybrid view of the self as the object of self consciousness that is the subject and owner of the events that occur by means of its agency Agents have unique identities as particular beings and identify themselves distinctively 2 The book argues that a healthy veridical sense of self grounds responsible agency by enabling persons to be aware of what they do and to understand their motives Certain pathologies upset the unity of a person's identity while others impair the lucidity of a person's sense of self and still others disturb general features of responsible agency such as the capacity to act purposively and realize one's will through intentional behavior The book explains what it means to be oneself and what departures from this state signify for a person's ability to navigate life and make sense of himself in the process The notion of acting out of character of failing to be oneself in some noteworthy way is relevant to a person's culpability because an individual's self conception affects his status as an accountable agent 3 To explain this the book defends an account of responsible agency Responsible persons are accountable alert to normative reasons in support of or in opposition to their behavior and able to respond to reasons for action bearing normative force because these reasons have normative force Accountable persons are unified agents a status that calls for an admission

Do You See What I See? Seeing Yourself Through the Eyes of God Kathy Parson,2009-03-26 Do you see what I see is a book designed to reveal the principles of Godly wisdom needed to establish maintain and guard our self esteem We are made in the image of God so male or female we are beautiful inside and out The word of God say s in Psalm 50 2 From Zion perfect in beauty God shines forth KJV This is a classic description of self esteem established from biblical principles This does not come from a manual of intellectual rules The book speaks to readers about our mind our heart the principles and the foundation on which we build our self esteem The book also explains the difference between authentic and camouflaged self esteem men who suffer from low self esteem and walking in the beauty of godly self esteem Believe it or not there are women in the Body of Christ who are suffering from low self esteem They come to church Sunday after Sunday dressed up flawless make up hair flowing or stacked and inside they have no idea who they really are because there is so much pain and torment The outward appearance is dressed up to hide what is on the inside But the devil is a liar what is outside should just be an enhancement of the beauty that is on the inside of them The two must link up the inside and outside have to connect in order to walk in the truth of God given self esteem Self esteem is the inner strength confidence and beauty that we possess as human beings It is not arrogant or haughty it is powerful The enemy wants to take this from you The bible says the thief comes to steal kill and destroy John 10 10 The enemy hates God s children and the self esteem that reflects the glory of Jesus Christ blinds him from seeing and getting a shot to destroy it The building up of self esteem starts in the mind When a woman looks into the mirror if she likes what she sees then her thoughts register and it is displayed outwardly If she doesn t like what she sees she first analyzes if it is something she can quickly fix such as a small flaw Anything beyond her immediate control causes her to develop a complex which begins to develop in her subconscious mind and travels to her heart This is the plan of the enemy leading to the destruction of her self esteem The enemy seeks to devour our self esteem His mission is to attack us with low self esteem in order to entangle us and hold us captive He plays tricks with our minds to try to make us believe his lies It is imperative that we do not come into agreement with him Our mind and our thoughts must be subject to the Lord Jesus Christ We have the power to command every thought that comes in our mind to be subject to Jesus Christ We have to guard our hearts God tells us in His word to guard our hearts for out of it springs the issues of life Proverbs 4 23 In other words it is what is in our hearts that show people who we really are This is why we must be hidden in Christ our place of refuge He will keep us in His care so that who He say s we are will reflect to those who see us As long as we walk this earth we will have enemies King David was a giant killer He defeated his enemies because the confidence inside of him came from God The more confident we become the more the enemy will try to destroy our self esteem However we already have power over him and his tactics so there is no need to fear him In order to be all that God has created us to be we must build our self esteem on His foundation it is a sure and eternal foundation Self Esteem established by God is authentic There used to be a saying Is it live or is it Memorex Is the sound of what we hear live real is it recorded or is it someone else s voice Camouflaged self esteem is derived from someone else s voice Authentic self esteem is eccentric Its beauty is exuberant The principles of godly self esteem are not gender specific God created men in His image and beauty so that same truth applies to men

What Does 'Art' Mean Now? Bruce Fleming, 2023-06-22 What Does Art Mean Now asks and answers fundamental questions about the nature of aesthetic experience and role of the arts in contemporary society The Modern Age Romanticism and beyond viewed art as something transcending and separated from life and usually something encountered in museums or classrooms Nowadays however art tends to be defined not by a commonly agreed upon standard of quality or by its forms such as painting and sculpture but instead by political and ideological criteria So how do we connect with the works in museums whose point was precisely that they stood apart from such considerations Can we and should we be educated to appreciate art and what does it do for us anyway What are we to make of the so different newer works installations performances excerpts from the world held to be art that increasingly make it into museums Adopting a subjectivist approach this book argues that in the absence of a universal judgment or standard of taste the experience of art is one of freedom The arts give us the means to conceptualize our lives showing us ourselves as we are and as we might wish or not wish to be as well as where we have been and where we are going It will appeal to scholars of sociology philosophy museum studies and art history and to anyone interested in or puzzled by museums or college courses and their presentation of art today
