Manual of Instructions for Marcel Duchamp Etant Donnés, 1987 Unpacking Duchamp Dalia

Judovitz, 1998-04-28 Transit transitional transition Dalia Judovitz catches Marcel Duchamp on the run with his art in a suitcase and his thought all boxed and ready to go She demonstrates how the theme of transition reappearing from work to work makes each piece reproduce some other piece while all continue to exemplify an original which can no longer be found and which has no creator Jean Fran ois Lyotard Manual of instructions for Marcel Duchamp Etant donnés Marcel Duchamp, 1987 Psychoanalysis and the Humanities Laurie Adams, Jacques Szaluta, 1996 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Part-Architecture Emma Cheadle, 2017-07-20 Part Architecture presents a detailed and original study of Pierre Chareau s Maison de Verre through another seminal modernist artwork Marcel Duchamp s Large Glass Aligning the two works materially historically and conceptually the book challenges the accepted architectural descriptions of the Maison de Verre makes original spatial and social accounts of its inhabitation in 1930s Paris and presents new architectural readings of the Large Glass Through a rich analysis which incorporates creative projects into history and theory research the book establishes new ways of writing about architecture Designed for politically progressive gynaecologist Dr Jean Dalsace and his avant garde wife Annie Dalsace the Maison de Verre combines a family home with a gynaecology clinic into a free plan layout Screened only by glass walls the presence of the clinic in the home suggests an untold dialogue on 1930s sexuality The text explores the Maison de Verre through another radical glass construction the Large Glass where Duchamp s complex depiction of unconsummated sexual relations across the glass planes reveals his resistance to the marital conventions of 1920s Paris This and other analyses of the Large Glass are used as a framework to examine the Maison de Verre as a register of the changing history of women s domestic and maternal choices reclaiming the building as a piece of female social architectural history The process used to uncover and write the accounts in the book is termed part architecture Derived from psychoanalytic theory part architecture fuses analytical descriptive and creative processes to produce a unique social and architectural critique Identifying three essential materials to the Large Glass the book has three main chapters Glass Dust and Air Combining theory text creative writing and drawing each traces the history and meaning of the material and its contribution to the spaces and sexuality of the Large Glass and the Maison de Verre As a whole the book contributes important and unique spatial readings to existing scholarship and expands definitions of architectural design and history The Selected Letters of John Cage John Cage, 2013-10-22 This annotated selection of more than five hundred letters by the groundbreaking composer and avant garde icon covers every phase of his career This volume reveals the intimate life of John Cage with all the intelligence wit and inventiveness that made him such an important composer and performer The missives range from lengthy reports of his early trips to Europe in the 1930s through his years with the dancer Merce Cunningham They shed new light on his growing eminence as an iconic performance artist of the American avant garde Written in Cage's singular voice by turns profound irreverent and funny these letters reveal Cage's passionate interest in people ideas and the arts They include correspondence with Peter Yates David Tudor and Pierre Boulez among many others Readers will enjoy Cage's commentary about the people and events of a transformative time in the arts as well as his meditations on the very nature of art This volume presents an extraordinary portrait of a complex brilliant man who challenged and changed the artistic currents of the twentieth century Rethinking Technologies Verena Andermatt Conley, 1993 Grounded on the assumption that the relationship between the arts and the sciences is dictated by technology the essays in Rethinking Technologies explore trends in contemporary thought that have been changing our awareness of science technology and the arts John Cage, Writer John Cage, 1993 In August 1992 John Cage died suddenly just a month before he would have celebrated his eightieth birthday The passing of one of the greatest avant garde figures of the century was mourned around the world and brought a new recognition of his achievements in music and art and a reconsideration of the Cage legacy that will long continue An essential part of this legacy are the writings gathered here which span more than fifty years of Cagean thought and creativity Generally unfamiliar they demonstrate that Cage was highly skilled in using language not only to provide insight into his own work but also to convey his response to the music of others his ideas about art film and dance and in An Autobiographical Statement his reflections on his own life career and self fulfillment Written between the late 30s and the early 90s these pieces here acquire the permanence they deserve Some have never been published before Many appeared only in magazines journals and catalogues others in concert programs and on record covers Also included are the texts of lectures and of crucial importance to an appreciation of his music Cage's notes on the performance of his compositions courtesy of his music publisher C F Peters Taken together these writings from their diverse sources and in their rich variety reveal a lessknown but central aspect of the genius of a mild mannered deeply courageous pioneer in the arts Dance critic Nancy Dalva has written John Cage taught us to listen to the world In this book we can learn what he heard New Art Examiner, 1991 The independent voice of the visual arts Manual of instructions for Marcel Duchamp Étant donnés Marcel Duchamp, 1987 Duchamp Marcel Duchamp, 1984 Manual of Instructions for Marcel Duchamp Étant Donnés, 1987 Marcel Duchamp Marcel Duchamp, 2009 In his early thirties Marcel Duchamp 1887 1968 convinced everyone that he had abandoned making art in favor of playing chess But from 1946 to 1966 he was secretly at work in his studio on West 14th Street in New York City There he produced his final masterpiece Étant donnés 1o la chute d'eau 2o le gaz d'éclairage composed of a battered wood door through which one views a prone nude female holding aloft an antique gas lamp against a landscape of trees waterfall and sky Unveiled as a permanent installation at the Philadelphia Museum of Art in July 1969 the year after Duchamp's death it startled the art world with its explicit eroticism and voyeurism as well as its trompe l'oeil realism Since its public debut Étant donnés has been recognized as one of the most important and enigmatic works of the 20th century Published to commemorate the fortieth anniversary of the original installation of tant donn s and to accompany the first major exhibition on the artwork and its studies this richly illustrated book presents a wealth of new research and documents that draw upon previously unpublished works of art and materials The catalogue also examines the critical and artistic reception of tant donn s as evidenced by the subsequent work of Les Levine Hannah Wilke Robert Gober Marcel Dzama Ray Johnson and other artists who have engaged with Duchamp s provocative and challenging tableau construction
