The Limits to Citizen Power Victor Albert,2016-06-20 Can a political project exist outside of the power relations from which it is trying to emerge In the twilight of Brazil s twenty one year military regime a new union movement emerged in S o Paulo s industrial region giving life to a new political party the Workers Party The electoral success enjoyed by the party enabled it to champion a whole raft of democratic reforms and Brazil is now celebrated as a laboratory for popular and participatory forms of government However through analysis of the trajectory of the Worker Party s democratic experiment the true challenge of embedding democracy inside existing state structures emerges Drawing on long term ethnographic research Victor Albert provides a critical analysis of citizen participation in Santo Andr in the region of Greater S o Paulo where the Workers Party was founded holding a microscope to the power relations between political appointees public officials and local community activists Albert also reveals how different social actors think and feel about citizen participation away from formal assemblies and how some participants engage in what is a tenuous and at times mutually distrustful tactical and strategic relationship with political patrons

Faith and Charity Marie Nathalie LeBlanc, Louis Audet Gosselin, 2016-10-20 Since the 1990s most African economies and public spheres have been liberalised and new civil society actors have emerged As mapped out by Marie Nathalie LeBlanc and Louis Audet Gosselin in West Africa Christian and Muslim organisations have come to dominate the field of humanitarian assistance Moving beyond mainstream development theory Faith and Charity brings out the crucial role of religion in the development process and the interplay of moral and political ideologies From faith based NGOs to individual local activists the authors explore how each group makes sense of and contributes to the wider process of social development in the neoliberal era Based on extensive research and deploying a sophisticated and original frame of analysis Faith and Charity will make an important contribution to the existing literature on development anthropology and the anthropology of religion in Africa

Anthropologies of Value Luis Fernando Angosto-Ferrandez, Geir Henning Presterudstuen, 2016-08-20 Anthropologies of Value analyses the creation of value in a wide range of political and cultural contexts This edited collection includes anthropological case studies from around the globe from the commodification of a Venezuelan waterfall to the relative value of penguins in periods of imperialist expansion Questioning the validity of binary oppositions such as north south core periphery and west the rest as the basis of generalisations about culturally mediated engagements with capitalism this collection leaves no stone unturned in its search to understand and define anthropological value theory It provides much needed controversial new material for students of anthropology and proposes an alternative rarely discussed method of studying the world system which challenges mainstream existing work in the field
