Manuel Ocampo Heridas De La Lengua:

Manuel Ocampo Manuel Ocampo,1997 Wounds of the Tongue Manuel Ocampo,Chon A. Noriega,Kevin Power,1997 One of the most important young artists to have emerged from Los Angeles in the 1990s Manuel Ocampo updates the tradition of political allegorists like Gericault Goya and Daumier In this beautifully illustrated catalogue Ocampo's exuberant works incorporate high and low academic and popular sacred and secular images and texts creating supercharged canvases with a blatant disregard for stylistic and idiomatic consistency Gutsy bold and filled with sociopolitical critique Ocampo practices the art of the alchemist Transforming horror into exquisite beauty history into art purgatory into salvation Essays by Chon Noriega and Kevin Power and a conversation between Ocampo and Daniel J Martinez Edited by Pilar Perez The Decolonized Eye Sarita Echavez See,2009 From the late 1980s to the present artists of Filipino descent in the United States have produced a challenging and creative movement In The Decolonized Eye Sarita Echavez See shows how these artists have engaged with the complex aftermath of U S colonialism in the Philippines Focusing on artists working in New York and California See examines the overlapping artistic and aesthetic practices and concerns of filmmaker Angel Shaw painter Manuel Ocampo installation artist Paul Pfeiffer comedian Rex Navarrete performance artist Nicky Paraíso and sculptor Reanne Estrada to explain the reasons for their strangely shadowy presence in American culture and scholarship Offering an interpretation of their creations that accounts for their queer decolonizing strategies of camp mimesis and humor See reveals the conditions of possibility that constitute this contemporary archive By analyzing art performance and visual culture The Decolonized Eye illuminates the unexpected consequences of America's amnesia over its imperial history Vestiges of War Angel Velasco Shaw,Luis H. Francia,2002-12 A compelling account of the consequences of American colonialism in the Philippines through critical and visual art essays Pedagogies of the Image Hannah M. Tavares,2016-06-15 This work considers the potential of photographs for orienting in a critical direction the scope questions and interests of the disciplinary conventions of the field of educational inquiry Visual objects may help illuminate broader socio historical events and logics that are deeply entwined with education yet remain marginal to or outside of what constitutes its domain of study In this work photographic images are treated as resources for re visioning the founding disciplinary objects of educational studies by reorienting its proper objects of study traditional archives persistent categories frames of reference and accepted portals of research and inquiry A theoretic framing shapes the question taken up in this work How might an engagement with photo archives open new horizons in the study of education from a postfoundationalist multi theoretic and cross disciplinary perspective The author constructs a rather unconventional vantage point to explore this question that opens on to the discursive spaces of three photographs made of three women in the years 1897 1949 and 1966 The photographs are analysed from three theoretic approaches First it is indicated how each photographic image not only marks a relationship to the past the present and the future but to the rules and conventions of photographic practices These particular images give an account of what both persists and exceeds the photographic image and permit to rewrite the bodies and lives pictured Second the subject matter of each photographic image while singular and local bears witness to the complex network of racial patriarchal and colonial logics and their profound imbrication with a technically mediated inscription For all their singularity the photographs cannot but evoke their relation to the deeply historical character of photography Finally the photographs make possible an account of broader occurrences subterranean histories contexts and differently situated experiences that illuminate much like the principle of montage a sequence of overlapping events crosscutting with one another consequently throwing open the possibility of responding to and transforming the histories and archives we are given This book Pedagogies of the Image is a winner of the 2017 American Educational Studies Association Critics Choice Award Double Trouble, 1998 Art in California Jenni Sorkin, 2021-09-16 An introduction to the rich and diverse art of California this book highlights its distinctive role in the history of American art from early 20th century photography to Chicana mural painting the Fiber Art Movement and beyond Shaped by a compelling network of geopolitical influences including waves of migration and exchange from the Pacific Rim and Mexico the influx of African Americans immediately after World War II and global immigration after quotas were lifted in the 1960s California is a centre of artistic activity whose influence extends far beyond its physical boundaries Furthermore California was at the forefront of radical developments in artistic culture most notably conceptual art and feminism and its education system continues to nurture and encourage avant garde creativity Organized chronologically and thematically with illustrations throughout this attractive study stands as an important reassessment of Californias contribution to modern and contemporary art in the United States and globally The Saddest Place on Earth Camille Rose Garcia, 2005 Camille Rose Garcia s world is a beautiful place It is the ballroom of an Empire a forest of aquamarine jewels a place where cream layered cakes crystal castles and opiate abundance serve to sedate the masses but as the telescope retracts the glossy veneer of privilege falls away to reveal another reality Machine guns and machetes decorate the landscape alongside exploding poppies Deer and princesses hand suspensefully in a cloud of malaise and disbelief becomes the ether of the living
