Salvation for the Sinned-Against Kevin P. Considine,2015-01-22 The problem of the barbarous excess of human suffering is becoming the main question of global Christianity In an intercultural globalizing world how do we envision the wounds of sin and God's saving work of healing liberation and redemption Salvation for the Sinned Against attempts to address these questions and to suggest a renewed understanding of God's salvation for the victims of sin within the intercultural and globalizing context of the twenty first century It offers a thorough treatment of Edward Schillebeeckx intercultural hermeneutics and the Korean concept of han and brings them into dialogue with the Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World Gaudium et spes This book is the first in depth study of han from a Roman Catholic perspective and the first to attempt to integrate han into Roman Catholic theology in order to begin to envision salvation for the sinned against creature Its insights into the experience and message of salvation for the sinned against as well as the perpetrators speak not only to the ecclesial sphere but to the public sphere and beyond Although written from a Western North American social location this is a book that can be useful far beyond this context

Decolonizing Revelation Rufus Burnett Jr.,2018-03-16 At a time when ideas like post racial society and BlackLivesMatter occupy the same space scholars of black American faith are provided a unique opportunity to regenerate and imagine theological frameworks that confront the epistemic effects of racialization and its confluence with the theological imagination Decolonizing Revelation contributes to this task by rethinking or taking a second look at the cultural production of the blues Unlike other examinations of the blues that privilege the hermeneutic of race this work situates the blues spatially offering a transracial interpretation that looks to establish an option for disentangling racial ideology from the theological imagination This book dislocates race in particular and modernity in general as the primary means by which God s self disclosure is read across human history Rather than looking to the experience of antiblack racism as revelational the work looks to a people group blues people and their spatial sonic and sensual activities Following the basic theological premise that God is a God of life Burnett looks to the spaces where blues life occurs to construct a decolonial option for a theology of revelation
