Mapmaker Of Absences Paperback By Benet Maria M:

Mapmaker of Absences Maria M. Benet, 2004 Poetry The world is full of things unbecoming themselves writes Maria M Benet in Mapmaker of Absences The poems in this collection chart more than subtractions and absences They recover scenes of a childhood in Eastern Europe and contemporary life in California they record the unraveling of preconceptions natural marital and familial they remind us of the intensity of small moments brought into consciousness Maria M Benet is a literary cartographer of memory of a past dense with meanings that need to be deciphered of longing nostalgia and loss She has found a way to map the interiors and she does so with insight sympathy and imagination Edward Hirsch Practice Dan Bellm, 2008 Poetry LGBT Studies Dan Bellm s third book of poems takes as its starting point the Jewish practice of studying weekly portions of the Torah the first five books of the Hebrew Bible in an annual cycle Working in the midrashic tradition imaginatively explaining or expanding a Biblical text often well beyond its literal meaning the poems offer meditations on faith doubt yearning family ties love and loss and the age old roots of modern day war In PRACTICE we see a poet of extraordinary range and formal versatility whose sonnets villanelles prose poems and lyric inventions engage both the imagination and the heart These poems are at once accessible and complex deeply personal and profoundly universal Reading Dan Bellm s poems I think This is blessing I think of Auden saying In the deserts of the heart Let the healing fountain start I am in awe of how Bellm s poems perform a dance with and against Holy Scripture And I keep coming back to his lines about the way the body addresses the soul lending it shape lending it comfort and sorrow PRACTICE is like a long prayer of wonder gratitude pain and loss and tenderness Alicia Ostriker Something happened to Dan Bellm in this third book that I believe will propel him most deservedly as one of the foremost poets of his generation Here speaking the language of the prophets revising it in a way that is both humble and heartbreakingly playful Bellm achieves a quiet grandeur that casts a spell and does not let me be I love PRACTICE as a book long sequence of parables prayers elegies and incantations that are traditional and yet utterly contemporary In assembling this formal collection Bellm teaches us We are living in Biblical times Ilya Kaminsky
